In both cases a later plea shall not be permitted; if the arbitral panel however considers the delay justified, the plea can be admitted.

13.7. Express Procedure

In specific cases, the ECA Council has the possibility to request the proceedings to be handled in an expedited manner and to issue appropriate directions therefore.

Such decision shall be made within 3 days from receipt of the statement of claim and shall be reasoned. If such a decision is made, any procedural timeline defined herein may be shortened. The arbitrators and the parties are bound by the directions (on procedural steps) defined by the ECA Council in the frame of an express procedure, unless the parties expressly refuse the underlying decision within 3 days from receipt of such decision.

ARTICLE 14 - INTERIM MEASURES OF PROTECTION

14.1. Unless otherwise agreed upon by the parties, a sole arbitrator nominated by the President of the ECA Council or the chairman of the arbitral panel in the principal proceeding may, at the request of a party, take such interim measure of protection as the sole arbitrator may consider necessary in respect of the subject matter of the dispute, as otherwise the enforcement of the claim would be frustrated or considerably impeded or there is a danger of irreparable harm. The sole arbitrator may require any party to provide appropriate security in connection with such measure. The parties are obliged to comply with such orders, whether or not they are enforceable by State courts.

- 14.2. The request for interim measures of protection shall be filed with the ECA Office.
- 14.3. If the request for interim measures is submitted separately from the principal proceedings; the requesting party shall pay a fee in the amount of €1,000 upon filing the application with the ECA Office. The ECA Office shall be provided with evidence of the transfer upon filing. If the fee has not been credited to the account of the ECA Office by the time the claim is filed, the claim shall be deemed withdrawn.
- 14.4. The decision on interim measures of protection may under certain urgent circumstances be awarded without hearing the other party.
- 14.5. If the decision on interim measures of protection was awarded without hearing the other party, the respondent has the right to object to the measure. If the decision on the request was passed by a sole arbitrator or the chairman of the arbitral panel in the principal proceedings, the objection shall be decided on by either the collective arbitral panel already engaged in the principal matter or a new (sole) arbitrator nominated by the President of the ECA Council.

ARTICLE 15 - DUE PROCESS

ARTICLE 19 - RENDERING OF THE ARBITRAL AWARD

- 19.1. Such time limit may be extended upon the expressed approval of the parties or by the President of the ECA Council upon a reasoned request of the chairman of the arbitral panel 19.2. In rendering the award, the arbitral panel is bound by the requests for relief made by the parties.
