

Arbitration Agreement (EHF club competitions season 2026/27)

(acc § 582 Austrian ZPO)

“Any dispute between the EHF and the club, between any National Federation member of the EHF and the club (in cross-border disputes), between the club and any other club of a National Federation member of the EHF (in cross-border disputes), or any dispute arising out of or in connection with EHF competitions shall be finally settled by arbitration by the European Handball Court of Arbitration, after exhaustion of all EHF internal legal remedies. European Handball Court of Arbitration proceedings replace ordinary public courts proceedings.

The seat of the Court shall be Vienna, Austria. The language of the arbitration shall be English.

The Rules of Arbitration of the European Handball Court of Arbitration (in force at the place of arbitration) and the obligatory provisions pursuant to chapter four of the Austrian Code of Civil Procedure from which the parties may not derogate by agreement (Sec. 577 ff Austrian Code of Civil Procedure [Zivilprozessordnung - ZPO]) shall apply. Apart from this, the arbitral chamber shall have complete discretion in conducting the proceedings. In all cases not specifically regulated the Austrian Code of Civil Procedure (Sec. 577 ff Zivilprozessordnung - ZPO) shall apply subsidiarily.

The signing parties confirm receipt and acceptance of the Rules of Arbitration of the European Handball Court of Arbitration.”
