I. GENERAL PROVISIONS

Article 1

Scope of application

1.1. The present Younger Age Category Euro Regulations (“YAC EHF EURO Regulations”) govern the rights, duties and responsibilities of all parties participating and involved in the preparation and organisation of the following national teams’ competitions organised by the European Handball Federation (“EHF”) pursuant to Articles 1.2 and 11.2 of the EHF Statutes:

- Women’s 17 EHF EURO
- Women’s 19 EHF EURO
- Men’s 18 EHF EURO
- Men’s 20 EHF EURO

These competitions are hereinafter jointly referred to as “YAC EHF EUROS” or individually referred to as “W17/W19/M18 or M20 YAC EHF EURO”.

Article 2

Fair play

2.1. The principles of fair-play must be observed by the EHF Member Federations, their delegations and their teams in all matches. Every member of the EHF Member Federation delegations participating in an YAC EHF EURO shall:

- Observe the Rules of the Game and the regulations governing the competition
- Respect all participants (players, officials, spectators, media representatives etc.)
- Promote the spirit of sportsmanship and pursue the cultural mission

Article 3

Applicable rules and regulations

- 3.1. All EHF regulations, manuals and guidelines applicable to the YAC EHF EURO shall form an integral part of the present YAC EHF EURO Regulations including (without limitation):
- The EHF Advertising on Clothing Regulations
 - The EHF Rules on Safety and Security Procedure
 - The EHF Legal Regulations
 - The EHF List of Penalties
 - The EHF Catalogue of Administrative Sanctions
 - The IHF Rules of the Game (subject to EHF specifications)
 - The IHF Player's Eligibility Code (part of the IHF Transfer Regulations)
 - The EHF Regulations for Anti-Doping
 - The EHF Codes of Conduct
 - The EHF Off Court Officiating Guidelines
 - The EHF EURO Event Set-up Manual
 - The YAC EHF EURO Procedures and Guidelines Manual

II. COMPETITION BASICS

Article 4

Competition stages and rhythm

- 4.1. The Younger Age Category Euros (the “Competition(s)”) consist(s) of a final tournament (“YAC EHF EURO”).
- 4.2. The W17/W19 YAC EHF EUROS take place in a two-year rhythm in odd years.
The M18/M20 YAC EHF EUROS take place in a two-year rhythm in even years.

Competition announcement

- 4.3. Each YAC EHF EURO is staged and organised by one EHF Member Federation (the “Host Federation”). Any alteration to this principle must be approved by the EHF Executive Committee.
- 4.4. The official announcement of a YAC EHF EURO is made by the EHF to the EHF Member Federations. The YAC EHF EURO application documents to stage and organise the respective YAC EHF EURO including (without limitation) the relevant bidding manual are sent to each EHF Member Federation in due time before the YAC EHF EURO playing periods.

Allocation of the competitions

- 4.5. The fulfilment of the criteria established by the EHF Executive Committee and/or defined in the corresponding YAC EHF EURO application documents, including (without limitation), the relevant bidding manual, is required for an application by a Member Federation.
- 4.6. The allocation of a YAC EHF EURO to a Member Federation is decided by the EHF Executive Committee.¹
- 4.7. The EHF Member Federation nominated as Host Federation of the YAC EHF EURO by the EHF Congress, is entrusted with the organisation and staging of the YAC EHF EURO in cooperation with the EHF.

III. ENTRIES/ADMISSIONS/DUTIES - CONDITIONS

Article 5

Right of registration

- 5.1. Notwithstanding the official EHF ranking list, any EHF Member Federation which has satisfied its obligations towards the EHF and the IHF is entitled to register in order to participate in a YAC EHF EURO.
- 5.2. Under exceptional circumstances, permission may be granted by the EHF Executive Committee to an Associated Federation or temporarily admitted Federation to register in order to participate in a YAC EHF EURO.

Single registration

- 5.3. The registration of the teams participating in a YAC EHF EURO, including the payment of the respective entry fee, takes place within the deadline provided by the EHF.

Admission criteria and fees

Registration documents

- 5.4. For its team to be eligible to participate in the Competition, a Member Federation must fulfil the following criteria:
 - a) It must confirm in writing that the Member Federation itself, its players and team officials and each and every delegation member agree to respect the statutes, regulations, code of conduct and decisions of the EHF (pledge of commitment/code of conduct – official form)
 - b) It must confirm in writing that the Member Federation itself, its players and team officials and each and every delegation member agree to recognise the jurisdiction of the EHF Court of Arbitration in Vienna as defined in the relevant provisions of the Statutes of the EHF (arbitration agreement – official form).
 - c) It must fill in the official registration documents which must be received by the EHF Office within the deadline set by the latter and communicated in due course to all Member Federations.
- 5.5. In principle, registrations submitted after the set deadline cannot be accepted as they adversely affect the technical preparations and the carrying out of the Competition by the EHF and the Host Federation.

Entry fee

- 5.6. For its team to be eligible to participate in the Competition, a Member Federation must pay an entry fee of € 375 to the EHF which must be received on the EHF account within the deadline set by the EHF and communicated in due course to all Member Federations.
- 5.7. The entry fee is paid once by the participating Member Federation for the entire Competition.
- 5.8. If the payment is not received by the EHF on the due date, the entry fee is automatically doubled.
- 5.9. If the entry fee is not received within four (4) weeks after the announced deadline, the Member Federation must be fined € 2,250 and must be excluded from the respective Competition.

Lump-sum advance payment

- 5.10. Together with the entry fee, all Member Federations that wish to have a team participating in the Competition must make a refundable (or for the use of other purposes) advance payment to the EHF. The advance payment per team must amount to a minimum of €1,875.

Refundable deposit

- 5.11. The EHF Executive Committee is allowed to set a permanent deposit of between €0 and €6,000 for each Member Federation, depending on the frequency of its participation in EHF competitions. If a Member Federation has a permanent deposit with the EHF, it does not have to transfer the advance payment as stipulated in Article 5.11.
- 5.12. If the frequency of the Member Federation participation in EHF competitions changes, the amount of the individual permanent deposit may be adjusted by the EHF Executive Committee.
- 5.13. The EHF is allowed to ask the Member Federations that wish to have a team participating in the final tournament of the Competition to set an additional deposit with the EHF which would cover the cost of any damage caused by their respective delegations in the hotels at the playing venues. The deposit is returned to the Member Federations at the end of the Competition if no damage has occurred.

Duties of the Member Federations

- 5.14. On entering the Competition, participating Member Federations and each and every delegation member agree:
- a) To comply with the IHF Rules of the Game (and with the specifications to the IHF Rules of the Game applying to the YAC EHF EURO).
 - b) To respect the principles of fair-play as defined in the Statutes of the EHF.
 - c) To participate in all matches of the Competition in accordance with the present YAC EHF EURO Regulations and any other applicable regulations.
 - d) To comply with all decisions regarding the Competition taken by the EHF Executive Committee, the EHF Office or any other competent body and communicated appropriately (by official letter or email).
 - e) To observe the EHF Rules on Safety and Security Procedure for all matches in the Competition.
 - f) To indemnify, defend and hold the EHF free and harmless against any and all liabilities, obligations, losses, damages, penalties, claims, actions, fines and expenses of whatsoever kind or nature resulting from, arising out of, or attributable to any non-compliance by the participating Member Federation or any of its players, officials, employees, representatives or agents with these EHF YAC EHF EURO Regulations.

IV. WITHDRAWAL, FAILURE TO PLAY AND SIMILAR CASES

Article 6

Withdrawal, failure to play and similar cases

- 6.1. A team withdrawing from the YAC EHF EURO or failing to play a YAC EHF EURO match is immediately excluded from the Competition.
- 6.2. In case of withdrawal, the entry fee, the lump-sum advance payment and the solidarity contribution must be forfeited to the credit of the EHF and the respective Member Federation shall be liable to pay compensation to the Host Federation, the participants, the EHF and/or their contractual partners for extra expenses and damages resulting from the withdrawal and from any nomination of a substitute team.
- 6.3. The Member Federation must moreover be fined and sanctioned in accordance with Article C of the EHF List of Penalties.
- 6.4. In case of failure to play a scheduled match, the entry fee, the lump-sum advance payment and the solidarity contribution must be forfeit to the credit of the EHF and the Member Federation may be fined up to €25,000. The team may additionally be suspended from participation in EHF competitions for up to two (2) seasons.
- 6.5. Failure to play a match or late arrival at the venue of a match through a team's provable fault must, in addition to the basic punishment, render the Federation of the defaulting team liable for damages and payment of all costs arising thereof to the Host Federation, the participants, the EHF and in particular their contractual partners.
- 6.6. If a team withdraws, refuses to play or is disqualified during the YAC EHF EURO, the results of all of its matches are declared null and void and the points awarded are forfeited.
- 6.7. If a team that has registered for the YAC EHF EURO withdraws or is disqualified, the EHF may replace it and if so, decides which team is to take its place according to the official EHF ranking list. No draw has to take place.
- 6.8. A team which withdraws, refuses to play or is responsible for a match not taking place or not being played in full loses all rights to payments from the EHF.

V. COMPETITION SYSTEM

Article 7

Number of participating teams

- 7.1. Each YAC EHF EURO is played with sixteen (16) teams.

Article 8

Basis for participation

- 8.1. According to the ranking of the previous YAC EHF EUROs and EHF Championships teams ranked first (1st) to thirteenth (13th) or fourteenth (14th) together with the two or three winners of the championships are entitled to register for and participate in the corresponding YAC EHF EUROs.

Promotion/Relegation

- 8.2. Winners of Men's 18 and Women's 17 Younger Age Category Championships tournaments ("YAC Ch") shall be promoted to the corresponding YAC EHF EURO of the same gender and age group as well as to the next age group.
- 8.3. YAC EHF EURO participating Member Federations finishing in the last positions of the Men's 18 and Women's 17 YAC EHF EURO in which they participated and at the same time not being qualified for the next WU18 or MU19 WCh (depending on the number of places available for the WCh), play together with the second ranked teams of the W17 and M18 EHF Championships to promote to the next YAC EHF EURO or to stay in the YAC EHF EURO. This shall be valid for the corresponding YAC EHF EURO of the same gender and age group as well as to the next age group.
- This competition will be played with a maximum number of eight (8) teams in the National Team Weeks (in March/April in the year of the WCh for M18/MU19 and in November/December in the year before the WCh for W17/WU18).
- 8.4. To determine which and how many Member Federations are entitled to participate in this additional competition a bottom-up approach starting from the lowest position (i.e. 16th position) of the corresponding YAC EHF EURO ranking and the number of Member Federations promoted from the YAC Ch shall apply.

Article 9

Final tournament playing system

- 9.1. Each YAC EHF EURO consists of a preliminary round, an intermediate round, a main round, cross matches, placement matches, semi-finals and finals.

Preliminary round group formation / Draw

- 9.2. The preliminary round is played in four (4) groups consisting of four (4) teams each.
- 9.3. The composition of the preliminary round groups of each YAC EHF EURO is decided by a public draw carried out by the EHF in the Host Federation's country.
- 9.4. The seeding for the draw is based on the teams ranking in the previous YAC EHF EURO.
- 9.5. The teams ranked first (1st) to fourth (4th) in the previous YAC EHF EURO are first seeded.
- 9.6. Once the seeding of the teams ranked first (1st) to fourth (4th) is finalised, the teams ranked fifth (5th) to eighth (8th) are seeded.
- 9.7. Once the seeding of the teams ranked fifth (5th) to eighth (8th) is finalised, the teams ranked ninth (9th) to twelfth (12th) are seeded.
- 9.8. Once the seeding of the teams ranked ninth (9th) to twelfth (12th) is finalised, the teams ranked thirteenth (13th) to sixteenth (16th) are seeded.
- 9.9. The Host Federation team is seeded according to its rank in the previous YAC EHF EURO.
- 9.10. The draw starts with the pots not containing the Host Federation. Once the three pots drawn, the Host Federation has the right to choose one of the groups (A-D) before the remaining places are drawn.

Match system for the preliminary round

- 9.11. The matches of the preliminary round are played in groups with each team playing all opponents in its group (round robin system). The basic playing schedule is to be found in enclosure 1.

In case there are more than one organiser a definition of "Organiser 1" (main organiser) and "Organiser 2" has to be taken in advance. This allows for Organiser 1 to have the first choice, followed by Organiser 2 having the second choice.

- 9.12. All matches of the preliminary round are played in two times thirty (2 x 30) minutes with a half-time break according to the IHF Rules of the Game. There shall be no extra time.
- 9.13. Two points are awarded for a win, one point for a draw and no point for a defeat.
- 9.14. Teams' ranking in a group is obtained by adding up the number of points won by each team in each group match.

Equality of points during and after the preliminary round matches

- 9.15. If two or more teams are equal on points in the preliminary round, their ranking is determined as follows:

During the preliminary round matches:

- a) Superior goal difference from all group matches.
- b) Higher number of goals scored in all group matches.
- c) Alphabetical order.

After the completion of the preliminary round matches:

- a) Higher number of points obtained in the group matches played amongst the teams in question.
- b) Superior goal difference from the group matches played amongst the teams in question.
- c) Higher number of goals scored in the group matches played amongst the teams in question.
- d) Superior goal difference from all group matches (achieved by subtraction).
- e) Higher number of goals scored in all group matches.

If the ranking of one of these teams is determined, the criteria are consecutively followed until the ranking of all teams is determined.

- 9.16. If this procedure does not lead to a decision after completion of all preliminary round matches, a draw must decide the ranking. The draw must be carried out by the EHF, if possible in the presence of at least one (1) team official per delegation concerned.

Match system for the intermediate and main rounds

- 9.17. The teams ranked first (1st) and second (2nd) in each group after completion of the preliminary round matches play in the main round.
- 9.18. The teams ranked third (3rd) and fourth (4th) in each group after completion of the preliminary round matches play in the intermediate round.
- 9.19. The main round and the intermediate round are played in two (2) groups consisting of four (4) teams.
- 9.20. Teams ranked first (1st) and second (2nd) in the preliminary round groups A and B compose the first main round group. Teams ranked first (1st) and second (2nd) in the preliminary round groups C and D compose the second main round group.
- 9.21. Teams ranked third (3rd) and fourth (4th) in the preliminary round groups A and B compose the first intermediate round group. Teams ranked third (3rd) and fourth (4th) in the preliminary round groups C and D compose the second intermediate round group.
- 9.22. The matches of the intermediate and main rounds are played in groups with each team playing the opponents in its group against which it did not play in the preliminary round (round robin system). The basic playing schedule is to be found in enclosure 1.
- 9.23. All matches of the main round are played in two times thirty (2 x 30) minutes with a half-time break according to the IHF Rules of the Game. There shall be no extra time.
- 9.24. Two points are awarded for a win, one point for a draw and no points for a defeat.
- 9.25. The points won during the preliminary round by the teams against opponents which also play in the same round (respectively intermediate round or main round) are kept and remain valid for the ranking of the intermediate and main round.
- 9.26. Teams' ranking in an intermediate and main round group is obtained by adding up the number of points won by each team according to Article 9.24 and the number of point won by each team in each match of the respective round (intermediate round or main round).

Equality of points during and after the intermediate and main round matches

- 9.27. If two or more teams are equal on points in the intermediate round or in the main round, their ranking is determined as follows:

During the intermediate or main round matches:

- a) Superior goal difference from all group matches.

- b) Higher number of goals scored in all group matches.
- c) Alphabetical order.

After the completion of the intermediate or main round matches:

- a) Higher number of points obtained in the group matches played amongst the teams in question.
- b) Superior goal difference from the group matches played amongst the teams in question.
- c) Higher number of goals scored in the group matches played amongst the teams in question.
- d) Superior goal difference from all group matches (achieved by subtraction).
- e) Higher number of goals scored in all group matches.

If the ranking of one of these teams is determined, the criteria are consecutively followed until the ranking of all teams is determined.

- 9.28. If this procedure does not lead to a decision after completion of all intermediate or main round matches, a draw must decide the ranking. The draw must be carried out by the EHF, if possible in the presence of at least one (1) team official of the delegations concerned.

Cross matches and placement matches

Places 5 to 8

- 9.29. The teams ranked third (3rd) and fourth (4th) in each group after completion of the main round matches play a cross match and a placement match to attribute the places 5 to 8 in the YAC EHF EURO ranking.
- 9.30. The team ranked third (3rd) in the first group of the main round plays a cross match against the team ranked fourth (4th) in the second group of the main round. The team ranked fourth (4th) in the first group of the main round plays a cross match against the team ranked third (3rd) of the second group of the main round.
- 9.31. The winner of each cross match play against each other in a placement match to attribute the places 5 and 6 in the YAC EHF EURO ranking.
- 9.32. The two other teams play against each other in a placement match to attribute the places 7 and 8 in the YAC EHF EURO ranking.

Places 9 to 16

- 9.33. After completion of the intermediate round matches, the teams play a cross match and a placement match to attribute the places 9 to 16 in the YAC EHF EURO ranking.
- 9.34. The team ranked first (1st) in the first group of the intermediate round plays a cross match against the team ranked second (2nd) in the second group of the intermediate round. The team ranked second (2nd) in the first group of the intermediate round plays a cross match against the team ranked first (1st) in the second group of the intermediate round.
- 9.35. The winner of each of the above mentioned cross matches play against each other in a placement match to attribute the places 9 and 10 in the YAC EHF EURO ranking.
- 9.36. The two other teams play against each other in a placement match to attribute the places 11 and 12 in the YAC EHF EURO ranking.
- 9.37. The team ranked third (3rd) in the first group of the intermediate round plays a cross match against the team ranked fourth (4th) in the second group of the intermediate round. The team ranked fourth (4th) in the first group of the intermediate round plays a cross match against the team ranked third (3rd) of the second group of the intermediate round.
- 9.38. The winner of each of the above mentioned cross matches play against each other in a placement match to attribute the places 13 and 14 in the YAC EHF EURO ranking.
- 9.39. The two other teams play against each other in a placement match to attribute the places 15 and 16 in the YAC EHF EURO ranking.

General information

- 9.40. Cross matches and placement matches are played in two times thirty (2 x 30) minutes with a half-time break according to the IHF Rules of the Game.
- 9.41. If the result stands as a draw at the end of the normal period time, the winners are determined by penalty throws in accordance with article 9.52.

If the result stands as a draw at the end of the normal period time, in semi-finals, bronze medal match and final, an extra time of two times five (2 x 5) minutes with a half-time break of one (1) minute and a changeover is played after a five (5) minutes break.

- 9.42. If the result stands as a draw after the first period of extra time, an additional extra time of two times five (2 x 5) minutes with a half-time break of one (1) minute and a changeover is played after a five (5) minutes break.

- 9.43. If the teams are still equal after the second period of extra time, the winners are determined by penalty throws (Article 9.52).

Semi-finals

- 9.44. The teams ranked first (1st) and second (2nd) in each group after completion of the main round matches play in the semi-finals.
- 9.45. The teams ranked first (1st) in the main round groups play against the teams ranked second (2nd) in the other main round group.

Bronze final (Places 3 to 4)

- 9.46. The losers of the semi-finals play a bronze final match to define places three (3) and four (4) in the respective YAC EHF EURO ranking.

Final (places 1 to 2)

- 9.47. The winners of the semi-finals play in the final.

Same number of goals in a semi-final, the bronze final or the final

- 9.48. The semi-finals, bronze final and final matches are played in two times thirty (2 x 30) minutes with a half-time break according to the IHF Rules of the Game.
- 9.49. If the result stands as a draw at the end of the normal period time, an extra time of two times five (2 x 5) minutes with a half-time break of one (1) minute and a changeover is played after a five (5) minutes break.
- 9.50. If the result stands as a draw at the end of the first extra time, an additional extra time of two times five (2 x 5) minutes with a half-time break of one (1) minute and a changeover is played after a five (5) minutes break.
- 9.51. If the two teams are still equal after the second period of extra time, the winners are determined by penalty throws (Article 9.52).

Penalty throws rules

- 9.52. Rules on the execution of penalty throws:
- a) Prior to the penalty throws, each team nominates five (5) players eligible to play at the end of the match by handing over a list with the numbers of five (5) players. Each of the nominated players shall execute one throw, alternating with their opponents. Teams may choose the order of their throwers freely.

- b) The goalkeepers may be chosen freely and substituted in accordance with the Rules of the Game. Goalkeepers may act as throwers and throwers as goalkeepers.
- c) The goal to be used must be decided by the referees. The referees draw lots (coin toss) for deciding which team throws first. The team winning the draw has the right to decide whether it wishes to throw first or last.
- d) The team having scored the highest number of goals after both teams have executed their five (5) throws wins. If the match is still undecided after the first round of penalty throws, the process is repeated until a decision is reached. The other team begins. In the second set of five throws each, a further five players entitled to play have to be nominated (players having already thrown may be nominated again).
- e) A decision in the second round of penalty throwing is reached once there is a difference in goals after both teams have executed the same number of throws.
- f) Players and goalkeepers eligible to play are those players on the match report who are not disqualified, excluded or suspended when the whistle finished the second extra time.
- g) Serious violations during the penalty throws will be punished by disqualification in all cases. If a court player or a goalkeeper is disqualified or injured, a substitute with playing eligibility must be nominated.
- h) During each individual throw, only the player executing the throw, the defending goalkeeper and the referees are allowed to be in the respective half of the playing court.
- i) In the case that the number of players eligible to play is lower than five (5), the team concerned has the right to nominate players for a second throw during the same round.

VI. TROPHY, MEDALS AND PRIZES

Article 10

Trophy

- 10.1. The winner of the YAC EHF EURO receives from the EHF a trophy in the shape of a plate. The trophy remains in the winner Member Federation's keeping and ownership at all times.
- 10.2. The other finalist of the YAC EHF EURO and the team ranked third (3rd) in the Competition receive from the Host Federation a trophy in different shape than the winner's trophy. The trophies remain in the respective Member Federations' keeping and ownership at all times.

Gold, silver, bronze medals

- 10.3. Each delegation member (up to twenty-five (25) persons including players and team officials) of the team that wins the YAC EHF EURO receives a gold medal.
- 10.4. Each delegation member (up to twenty-five (25) including players and team officials) of the team ranked second (2nd) in the YAC EHF EURO receives a silver medal.
- 10.5. Each delegation member (up to twenty-five (25) persons including players and team officials) of the team ranked third (3rd) in the YAC EHF EURO receives bronze medals.

Commemorative medals

- 10.6. Each delegation member (up to twenty-five (25) persons including players and team officials) of the teams which compete receives a commemorative medal.
- 10.7. Each EHF Official who participates in the YAC EHF EURO organisation receives a commemorative medal.
- 10.8. A complete set of YAC EHF EURO medals (gold, silver, bronze and commemorative) must be provided by the Host Federation to the EHF Office after the end of the respective YAC EHF EURO.

VII. COMPETITION/MATCHES DATES AND TIMES

Article 11

Playing periods

- 11.1. The playing period of the YAC EHF EURO is fixed by the EHF. It is notified to the Member Federations with the announcement of the respective YAC EHF EURO.

Match dates / Throw-off times

- 11.2. The exact dates and throw-off times of each YAC EHF EURO match are subject to coordination between the EHF and the Host Federation.
- 11.3. The final decision regarding dates and throw-off times of the final tournament matches lies with the EHF.
- 11.4. There must be at least eighteen (18) hours interval between the throw-offs of 2 (two) successive matches of a team.
- 11.5. The exact dates and throw-off times of the YAC EHF EURO matches are communicated to the participating Member Federations by the EHF in due time before the YAC EHF EURO.

Training times

- 11.6. During the YAC EHF EURO, each participating team is given the possibility to train fifty-five (55) minutes per day on match days and eighty-five (85) minutes per day on rest days. Training is organised either in the playing hall or in a training hall at a distance of maximum twenty-five (25) kilometres/thirty (30) minutes from the playing hall. During the tournament, each team is given the possibility to train in the playing hall an equal number of times and in any case once prior to their first match.
- 11.7. A schedule of the teams' trainings during the YAC EHF EURO is prepared by the Host Federation and the EHF according to the EHF standard requirements and any further requirements defined herein. The YAC EHF EURO training schedule is communicated to the participating Member Federations in due time prior to the beginning of the YAC EHF EURO.
- 11.8. Modifications of scheduled times/dates of the training sessions or additional training sessions in the playing hall and/or training hall are not allowed, unless expressly agreed by the EHF and the Host Federation.

EUROPEAN HANDBALL
FEDERATION

- 11.9. The respective delegation must inform the Host Federation of the cancellation of any of the team training session twenty-four (24) hours before (in any case on the evening before) the training session scheduled time/date.

Teams arrival dates

- 11.10. All team players and officials must arrive in their hotel in the respective YAC EHF EURO venue one (1) day prior to the first match day - at 5 pm at the latest.

VIII. PLAYERS ELIGIBILITY AND REGISTRATION

Article 12

Nationality

- 12.1. YAC EHF EURO matches are carried out as international matches. Players of a team participating in a YAC EHF EURO must be in possession of the citizenship of the respective country. Proof of nationality (valid passport or national identity card) is required to take part in the YAC EHF EURO. A player who cannot present either a valid passport or national identity card from the country concerned is not eligible to participate in any match of a YAC EHF EURO.
- 12.2. In addition, every player participating in a YAC EHF EURO must be eligible to play for that country in accordance with the applicable IHF Regulations (IHF Players' Eligibility Code).

Article 13

Registration / Official Squad

Official Squad

- 13.1. Member Federations must submit the list of the players and team officials ("Official Squad List") who will form the basic group of their team during the YAC EHF EURO in writing to the Host Federation and the EHF Office within the deadline set by the latter and communicated in due course to the participating Member Federations.
- 13.2. The Official Squad List must contain a maximum of twenty-eight (28) players ("Official Squad"). The players (28 or less) listed in the Official Squad List are the only players eligible to participate in the respective YAC EHF EURO. Changes/insertions of players in the Official Squad List at a later stage are not permitted.
- 13.3. The number of team officials in the Official Squad List is not restricted and is not final; changes/insertions of team officials at a later stage but no later than at the first technical meeting one day before the start of the YAC EHF EURO (excepted cases specified in Article 13.26) are allowed.
- 13.4. The following information must be submitted with the Official Squad List:
 - a) Number of each of the players appearing on the List (from 1 to 99) Players' first names, surnames, dates of birth, clubs/nations, body heights, number of international matches, playing position, passport/national identity card numbers.

- b) Colours of the first and second full team kit (dark colours kit/light colours kit), clearly stating colours of shirts and shorts and colours of the first and second kit for the goalkeepers.
 - c) Team officials' names, surnames, date of birth, function, nation and assigned letter (from A to F).
 - d) Up-to-date EHF Coaches Licensing Sheet.
- 13.5. If the Official Squad List of a Member Federation is not received by the EHF Office and the Host Federation within the set deadline, the first twenty-eight (28) (or less) players appearing on the preliminary list of players and team officials submitted by the Member Federation are considered by the EHF as the final Official Squad List of this Federation.

Official Delegation

- 13.6. At the first technical meeting, one day before the start of the YAC EHF EURO, a maximum of sixteen (16) players from the twenty-eight (28) listed players of the Official Squad as well as a maximum of six (6) team officials must be nominated as Official Delegation by each delegation. The valid passports or national identity cards of each of the sixteen (16) players of the Official Delegation must be presented to the EHF delegates (two at least) at the technical meeting for verification.
- 13.7. Subject to Articles 13.15 to 13.25, only the sixteen (16) players of the Official Delegation are allowed to play in matches of the corresponding YAC EHF EURO.

Start List

- 13.8. The Start List contains the names and numbers of the sixteen (16) players and six (6) teams' officials of the Official Delegation. The Start List is prepared and handed over to the team officials in charge in due course before the throw-off of a YAC EHF EURO match. One (1) hour before the throw-off of the match the team officials in charge must check the pre-prepared Start List, confirm the participating players and reduce the number of team officials to four (4) by crossing out up to two (2) team officials listed.
- 13.9. Only the four (4) officials of the Start List not crossed out are eligible to be in the substitution area during the match.

Eligibility to participate

- 13.10. Players not meeting the eligibility criteria defined in Article 12, not registered in accordance with the present Article 13 and/or by the announced date are not eligible to participate in the YAC EHF EURO.

EHF Coaches Licensing

- 13.11. Member Federations participating in YAC EHF EURO must ensure that the EHF is in possession of an up-to-date EHF Coaches Licensing Application Sheet. Any modification (e.g. change of coach(es), change of coaching level) relating to the respective YAC EHF EURO must be communicated to the EHF Office by submitting a new and up-to-date sheet. According to Article 13.5, the up-to-date sheet shall be submitted to the EHF Office with the Official Squad list within the deadline set by the EHF and announced in due time to the participating Member Federations.
- 13.12. The EHF Coaches Licensing Application Sheet shall be completed with all the required details and information.
- 13.13. The Member Federations can fill in the EHF Coaches Licensing Application Sheet for as many coaches as they wish but in any case a minimum of one (1) person with the proper licence (i.e. minimum Category III of the EHF Rinck Convention) must be registered and take effectively part in the matches of the Member Federation.

Players' replacement

- 13.14. During the YAC EHF EURO, up to two (2) players can be replaced by another player of the Official Squad List at any time during the tournament.
- 13.15. The delegations must inform the EHF Office at the venue (the "EHF Office") about the replacement of players by submitting in person or sending by email the duly completed and signed form for replacements as well as the passport or national identity card of the replaced player (original or copy) by 09:00hrs on the match day. If the respective match starts at 11:00hrs or earlier, the replacement must be communicated by 21:00hrs on the day prior to the respective match day.
- 13.16. If a copy of the passport or national identity card of the replacing player(s) is sent/ presented to the EHF Office, the original passport or national identity card must be presented to the EHF delegate (supervisor) at the technical meeting prior to the next match or in the playing hall one (1) hour prior to the next match at the latest.
- 13.17. Upon confirmation by the EHF of the replacement (only after presentation of the original passport or national identity card of the replacing player), the replacing player is added on the official Start List/match report of the next match of the team and the replaced player is removed.
- 13.18. A player being replaced by another player can be replaced again under the condition of a replacement referred to in Articles 13.14 to 13.20.

- 13.19. If the player being replaced is under suspension (for a certain period of time or a number of matches), the replacing player is eligible to participate in matches of the respective YAC EHF EURO only after completion of the entire suspension.
- 13.20. Additional costs arising from the replacement or the additional announcement of players must be borne by the related Member Federations, including the costs of local transports such as the transport from and to the airport.

Additional announcement of players

- 13.21. If at the first technical meeting, one day before the start of the YAC EHF EURO, a delegation nominates fifteen (15) or less players out of the Official Squad List to be part of the Official Delegation, the delegation is entitled to nominate one (1) additional player out of the players of the Official Squad under the following conditions:
- 13.22. The delegation must inform the EHF Office about the additional announcement of a player by handing in or sending by email the duly completed and signed official form for additional announcements as well as the passport or national identity card of the additional player (original or copy), by 09:00hrs on the match day. If the respective match starts at 11:00hrs or earlier, the announcement must be communicated by 21:00hrs on the day prior to the respective match day.
- 13.23. If a copy of the passport or national identity card of the additional player(s) is sent/presented to the EHF Office, the original passport or national identity card must be presented one (1) hour prior to the throw-off of the next match at the latest to the EHF delegate (supervisor).
- 13.24. Upon confirmation by the EHF of the additional announcement (only after presentation of the original passport or national identity card of the replacing player), the player is added on the official Start List/match report of the next match of the team.

Replacement of team official

- 13.25. Under exceptional circumstances, the tournament management may, upon request, accept the change of a team official of a participating delegation after the technical meeting.
- 13.26. Additional costs arising from the replacement of team official must be borne by the related Member Federation, apart from the costs of local transports, including the costs of local transports such as the transport from and to the airport.

FEDERATION

Participation of suspended and/or players not eligible to participate

- 13.27. The use of a player who has been suspended and/or is not eligible to play in any YAC EHF EURO match must be sanctioned in accordance with the applicable EHF Legal Regulations and EHF List of Penalties.

IX. KIT (players' clothing – shirts and shorts)

Article 14

Team kits requirements

- 14.1. Each team is required to have at least one (1) full team kit in light colours and one (1) full team kit in dark colours for the matches of the YAC EHF EURO. Blue and red are considered dark colours. In case of multi-coloured shirts in any of the full team kits, only one of the colours – and not the main colour – can be repeated in the other full team kit.
- 14.2. Goalkeepers' kit must differ from court players' kit, in both dark colour and light colour kit options.
- 14.3. The colours and the photos of the full team kits (at least one (1) light colour option and one (1) dark colour option) must be provided to the EHF before the beginning of the YAC EHF EURO within the deadline set by the latter and communicated in due course to the participating Member Federations. "Style guide" illustrations of the full team kits are not accepted as photos.
- 14.4. The full team kits (at least one (1) light colour option and one (1) dark colour option) of each team must be presented by each delegation at the first technical meeting prior to the beginning of the YAC EHF EURO for final approval by the EHF. If more than two (2) full team kits have been prepared for the YAC EHF EURO, they must also be presented at the first technical meeting.
- 14.5. The full team kits approved at the first technical meeting are the only ones allowed during the entire YAC EHF EURO.

Choice of kit

- 14.6. A "kit plan" defining the full team kit (light colour option or dark colour option) to be used by each team in each preliminary round match is set up by the EHF (based on the composition of the groups and the TV appearance requirements) after the first technical meeting and communicated in due course to the delegations. Subject to Articles 14.8 and 14.9, the EHF decision is final. The "kit plan" must be respected by each participating team.
- 14.7. Such a "kit plan" is also set up by the EHF for the main round matches, the intermediate round matches, cross matches, placement matches and the final weekend matches after the respective technical meetings and communicated in due course to the delegations. Subject to Articles 14.8 and 14.9, the EHF decision is final.
- 14.8. The EHF delegate (supervisor) of each match is allowed to request any of the teams to play with another approved full team kit than the one specified in the kit plan if the EHF delegate considers that the colours of the team's pre-defined kits are likely to cause confusion. The teams must comply with the EHF delegate's (supervisor) instruction accordingly.

- 14.9. Any EHF Official (EHF delegate or EHF referee) of the match is allowed to request any of the team officials to change their clothing, if the EHF Official considers that colours of the team official's clothing are likely to cause confusion, in particular with the court players of the opposing team. The team officials must comply with the EHF Official's instruction accordingly.

Players' names / numbers – Officials' letters

- 14.10. Each player's number announced during the first technical meeting must be affixed on the back and front of the shirt of the respective player. The number must be clearly legible, must range from 1 to 99 and be at least 20 cm high on the back and at least 10 cm high on the front. The colour of the number must contrast clearly with the colour of the shirt.
- 14.11. During the entire duration of the YAC EHF EURO each player must wear the same number (the one announced during the registration process and confirmed during the first technical meeting) regardless of her/his position (goalkeeper or court player).
- 14.12. The letter assigned by the delegations to their team officials during the first technical meeting must be affixed on the officials' accreditations. They must range from A to F. No loose letter card is allowed during the YAC EHF EURO.
- 14.13. During the entire duration of the YAC EHF EURO, each team official must wear the same letter (the one announced during the registration process and confirmed during the first technical meeting).

Additional requirements

- 14.14. During the team line-up, the entire team must wear identical clothing either the approved full team kit to be worn during the match or tracksuits (except goalkeepers).
- 14.15. In accordance with the present regulations as well as the IHF Rules of the Game: Regulations on Protective Equipment and Accessories, the following shall apply during YAC EHF EURO matches:
- a) The court players and the goalkeepers must wear the approved full team kit specified in the respective "kit plan" or requested by the EHF delegate (supervisor). The number of each player must appear on their shirts as defined here above.
 - b) Clothing (i.e. shorts and shirts with long sleeves) as long as the colour is the same/and or similar to the dominant colour of the approved full team kit worn during the matches and is identical for all team members.
 - c) The team officials on the bench must wear clothing having clearly distinct colour(s) from the colour(s) of the opposing team's playing kit.

Article 15

Advertising on players' kits

- 15.1. Subject to the restrictions mentioned hereunder, advertising on players' kits is allowed.
- 15.2. Advertising related to drugs, pornography or spirits is strictly forbidden on the players' kits.
- 15.3. For any advertising on kits during a YAC EHF EURO, the provisions and restrictions laid down in the Advertising on Clothing Regulations must be respected.
- 15.4. Each delegation member must comply with any further advertising restrictions communicated by the EHF to the participating Member Federations in due time prior to the beginning of the YAC EHF EURO.
- 15.5. The Host Federation must inform the EHF on any local restriction or ban regarding advertising in due time before the YAC EHF EURO if the Member Federation decides to use surnames on the shirts.

Back shirt advertising restrictions

- 15.6. The area on the back of the shirts above the player's number must be free of any advertising or writing. Only the surname of the player must be visible.

Sleeves advertising

- 15.7. Sleeves of the players' shirts must be reserved for EHF advertising. Any other type of advertising and/or writing on the sleeve is forbidden.
- 15.8. The team official(s) in charge must ensure that the sleeves badges and/or logos are properly fixed on each player's shirt in due time prior to each match.
- 15.9. The EHF informs the participating Member Federations if the aforementioned EHF right to sleeve advertising will not be used at least six (6) weeks prior to the beginning of the respective YAC EHF EURO.

Non-obedience of the applicable points

- 15.10. Non-obedience of one or more of the provisions stated hereabove, and/or of the Advertising on Clothing Regulations, may be sanctioned according to the applicable EHF regulations, including the EHF Legal Regulations. In addition the respective Member Federation may be required to reimburse all damages occurred.

X. MATCH PROCEDURE

Article 16

Laws of the game

- 16.1. YAC EHF EURO matches are played in conformity with the applicable Rules of the Game promulgated by the International Handball Federation (IHF) subject to the following specifications:
- a) Teams can play with up to sixteen (16) players.
 - b) Chairs instead of benches are installed in the substitution area.
 - c) The requirements of the YAC EHF EURO Procedures and Guidelines Manual concerning the substitution area set –up prevail.

Article 17

Technical meeting

- 17.1. A technical meeting is carried out one (1) day before the beginning of each YAC EHF EURO round (preliminary round; intermediate round and main round; cross matches, placement matches and final week-end) in each YAC EHF EURO venue in the teams' hotel announced by the EHF.
- 17.2. Technical meetings must be attended by at least one (1) team official of each delegation participating in the respective round and the team guides. The team officials attending the technical meetings must be able to communicate in English.
- 17.3. In the first technical meeting of the YAC EHF EURO, one day prior to the first matches, each delegation must:
- a) Nominate its Official Delegation composed of a maximum of sixteen (16) players from the twenty-eight (28) players of the Official Squad List and six (6) team officials. The team official in charge must complete all fields of the Official Delegation form, must sign it and must hand it over.
 - b) Present a valid passport or national identity card for each of the players nominated as part of the Official Delegation.
 - c) Show the full team kits. One piece of each full team kit (dark colour option and light colour option) must be brought along. The full team kits colours of each participating team must be the ones announced at an earlier stage to the EHF (with the required modifications implemented, if any).
 - d) Confirm the music of the national anthem of the respective country.

- 17.4. The full team kits of each team must be checked by the EHF during the first technical meeting of the YAC EHF EURO.
- 17.5. The Official Delegation forms presenting the lists of players and team officials nominated as Official Delegation must be checked with the players' passports or national identity cards, and be approved and signed by at least two (2) EHF delegates during the first technical meeting of the YAC EHF EURO.
- 17.6. During the following technical meetings of the YAC EHF EURO, the full team kits must be once again presented by each participating delegation.

Article 18

A. Pre-match procedure

Warm up

- 18.1. In due time before the start of an YAC EHF EURO match, the playing court is made available to the players of the two playing teams for warm-up and play practice.

Start List

- 18.2. One (1) hour before the start of an YAC EHF EURO match, the pre-prepared Start List containing the names of the Official Delegation of the playing teams must be checked and confirmed by the team officials in charge. Moreover, the team officials in charge must reduce the number of team officials to a maximum of four (4) by crossing out up to two (2) team officials listed. Only four (4) team officials are eligible to be in the substitution area during the match.
- 18.3. The Start List must be signed by each team official in charge and handed over to the EHF delegate (supervisor) fifteen (15) minutes prior to the throw-off of the match.
- 18.4. The Host Federation is responsible to distribute the completed and finalised Start List to the press, press agents and to the EHF Office before the match.
- 18.5. The EHF delegate (supervisor) coordinates and is responsible for the Start List procedure assisted by the EHF Office.

Before teams line-up

- 18.6. Each player being on the playing court for the warm-up must immediately leave the playing court upon EHF referees' instructions to do so (twelve (12) minutes before the match throw-off at the latest).

Teams' line-up

- 18.7. Each player of the playing teams must be ready for the official teams' line-up ten (10) minutes prior to the official throw-off of the matches (twelve (12) minutes prior to the official throw-off for the matches of the final week-end).
- 18.8. Before entering the playing court for the official teams' line-up, ten (10) minutes before the match throw-off, the players have to follow both the EHF referees' and floor managers' instructions and gather at the defined collection point (pre-defined corner of the playing court surrounding area).
- 18.9. Once the EHF referees have given the playing teams the instruction to gather, none of the player is allowed to leave the playing court area.
- 18.10. The players must enter the playing court following the respective EHF referee as well as the path made by children. They must slap hands (high-five) with the children on either side simultaneously with both hands. The players of the team entering second on the playing court must also slap hands with the other team players before taking their line-up position (enclosure 2).

Pre-match procedure schedule

- 18.11. The detailed pre-match procedure schedule of the preliminary, intermediate and main round matches is the following:
 - 09:45 Flag, mascots, referees, teams ready at the entry meeting point. Player escorts (children) form tunnel
 - 09:30 Start of the protocol flag presentation by four flag presenting children
 - 09:00 Line-up of Team A/B (team seating in the first substitution area after the players' entrance point)
 - 08:30 Line-up of Team B/A
 - 08:00 Introduction of Team A – players and officials
 - 06:30 Introduction of Team B – players and officials
 - 05:00 Introduction of the referees, EHF officials
 - 04:00 National anthem of Team A
 - 02:45 National anthem of Team B
 - 01:30 Final match preparations of the teams and fair-play announcement
 - 00:00 Throw-off/Order by EHF delegate (supervisor)
- 18.12. The detailed pre-match procedure schedule of the final week-end matches is adapted with two (2) additional minutes to the schedule defined under Article 18.11.

- 18.13. Further details and information about the pre-match procedure is provided to the delegations before the beginning of the YAC EHF EURO and before each match. The provided information may contain modifications to the schedule mentioned under Article 18.11 due to the practicalities of each venue and each match.
- 18.14. Instructions regarding pre-match procedure given by the floor manager and/or the EHF delegate (supervisor) in the playing hall before each match prevail and must in any case be followed by any person involved in the pre-match procedure.
- 18.15. Any playing team and individual causing a delay in the throw-offs (start/half-time/timeout) of a YAC EHF EURO match is liable for any damage incurred and may be sanctioned by the EHF accordingly.

Fair play announcement

- 18.16. The following fair-play announcement is read by the announcer in English and optionally in the official language of the country of the Host Federation once the teams lined-up, before the throw-off:

“To ensure fair conditions for all players, officials and referees and in the interest of the sport of handball we kindly request you, the spectators, to support your team in a fair manner and to show a positive attitude towards all participants and spectators, Thank you.”

B. Post-match procedures

Handshake and line up

- 18.17. Immediately after the end of a YAC EHF EURO match, after the public announcer’s announcement of the teams’ line-up, the playing teams must line up in the centre of the playing court facing the judges’ table and carry out the official passing-by handshake after the best player’s awards according to enclosure 3.

Best player of the match award

- 18.18. An Electoral Commission composed of one (1) expert nominated by the EHF or one (1) expert nominated by the Host Federation and chaired by one (1) EHF representative present at the venue elects the best player of the match after each YAC EHF EURO match. The best player of the match is automatically nominated to join the EHF ‘Respect Your Talent’ programme. Details of the programme will be announced ahead of the start of the YAC EHF EURO.
- 18.19. The name of the best player of the match is announced by the public announcer immediately after the end of the match and the teams’ line-up; the named player must step out of the line. A best player of the match award is handed over to the player by the EHF representative or a person nominated by the EHF representative in cooperation with a Host Federation representative.

Mixed zone

- 18.20. After the end of each YAC EHF EURO match and the respective ceremonies, all players and officials of the playing teams (physiotherapists and doctors excepted) must pass through the mixed zone, respectively through the official routing system.

Post-match press conference

- 18.21. The organisation of post-match press conferences at YAC EHF EURO events is optional, depending on the level of media interest. Organisers may propose alternative ideas (e.g. flash or super flash interviews) and the EHF welcomes new initiatives and innovations. Approval must be sought from the EHF ahead of the start of the YAC EHF EURO.
- 18.22. If organised, official post-match press conference must take place in the media centre of playing hall fifteen (15) minutes after the end of each YAC EHF EURO match or in case a ceremony takes place after the match, fifteen (15) minutes after the end of the respective ceremony(ies). The head coach of each playing team together with one (1) key player approved by the EHF must take part in the post-match press conference/interviews accompanied by an interpreter, if necessary.
- 18.23. During the post-match press conference/interviews of the semi-finals and the final, the head coach must be accompanied by two (2) key players approved by the EHF.
- 18.24. At the request of the EHF the official post-match press conference must be streamed live.

Transmission of results and tables

- 18.25. The Host Federation is responsible to distribute the half-time results, the final match results, the match reports as well as information on the number of spectators and any other relevant match information of each YAC EHF EURO match to the press, press agents, immediately after each respective match.
- 18.26. Person(s) in charge must be nominated by the Host Member Federation accordingly.
- 18.27. Match reports and tables showing results after completion of the matches in the respective round or group may be published only after being officially approved by the EHF.

C. Post-match specific ceremonies

All Star Team

- 18.28. The All Star Team of the YAC EHF EURO, composed of the best player of the YAC EHF EURO in each position as well as the Most Valuable Player, the Best Defence Player and the Top Scorer (all together ten (10) players) is elected by a group of experts present during the YAC EHF EURO and nominated by the EHF during the preliminary round of the YAC EHF EURO.
- 18.29. The All Star Team is announced by the public announcer after the second semi-final, immediately after the best player's awards ceremony or alternatively on the final day.

Farewell ceremony

- 18.30. A farewell ceremony for each team (except for the finalists) takes place on the playing court at the end of the placement matches as well as at the end of the bronze final, following the best players' award ceremony.
- 18.31. The Official Delegation of the team(s) receives commemorative medals and local gifts (for up to twenty-five (25) persons) from a representative of the Host Federation. During the farewell ceremony of the bronze final a prize is additionally handed over to the team ranked fourth (4th) in the YAC EHF EURO.
- 18.32. Further details and information about the farewell ceremony are communicated to the delegations at the technical meetings.
- 18.33. Instructions regarding the farewell ceremony given by the floor manager, respectively the EHF official in charge prevail and must be followed by any person involved in the farewell ceremony.

Medals and closing ceremony

- 18.34. After the final match of the YAC EHF EURO a medal and closing ceremony takes place on the playing court following the best players' award ceremony. The Official Delegation of the teams ranked first to third must be present for the medals and closing ceremony.
- 18.35. The first, second and third ranked teams receive the following medals (for up to twenty-five (25) persons):
- 1st place and European Champion gold
 - 2nd place silver
 - 3rd place bronze

- 18.36. Besides the medals, the first ranked team receives the YAC EHF EURO trophy and the second and third ranked teams receive a trophy of a different shape.
- 18.37. Further details and information about the medals and closing ceremony are communicated to the relevant delegations in due time before the ceremony.
- 18.38. Instructions regarding the medals and closing ceremony given by the floor manager, respectively the EHF official in charge prevail and must be followed by any person involved in this ceremony.

Media and promotion

- 18.39. After the final match, the winner of the YAC EHF EURO must be available for media and promotion purposes upon EHF request.

Banquet

- 18.40. On the day of the final matches a banquet or similar event is organised by the Host Federation to close the YAC EHF EURO. The players and officials of the teams as well as the EHF officials should attend such a banquet as a gesture of friendship and courtesy.

XI. PARTICIPATING DELEGATIONS

Article 19

Number of delegation members

- 19.1. Each Member Federation participating in a YAC EHF EURO may travel to the venue with a delegation (including players and officials) of a maximum of twenty twenty-five (25) members.
- 19.2. Any exception to the foregoing must be requested in writing to the EHF and the Host Federation in due time prior to the beginning of the YAC EHF EURO and is subject to the Host Federation's prior approval.
- 19.3. The respective financial terms are defined under section XVII (Financial Provisions) of the present Regulations.

Promotion support

- 19.4. Each Member Federation participating in a YAC EHF EURO must actively promote the event and their participation through their official channels and their national media. Each federation is required to display an official event banner and ehfTV banner promoting event live streaming on their official website. Web banners and additional PR materials will be provided by the EHF ahead of the start of each YAC EHF EURO.

XII. RESPONSIBILITIES

Article 20

Responsibilities of the Member Federations

- 20.1. The Member Federations are legally and financially accountable towards the EHF in respect of their delegation and team participating in the YAC EHF EURO. In particular, the Member Federations are accountable for the conduct of their players, officials, other delegation members, supporters and of any person having a function in the Member Federation, and/or carrying out a function at a match on behalf of the Member Federation, respectively on behalf of the delegation. They may be sanctioned accordingly.
- 20.2. The Host Federation is responsible for security and order before, during and after the matches. The Host Federation may be called to account for incidents of any kind.

Additional responsibilities

- 20.3. The EHF Office informs the Member Federations, respectively the delegations participating in the YAC EHF EURO about any further guidelines, directives or decisions related to the YAC EHF EURO to be respected and provides them with all relevant documents in due time.

XIII. INSURANCE

Article 21

General principles

- 21.1. Everyone involved in the YAC EHF EURO is responsible for his/her own insurance cover.
- 21.2. The participating Member Federations are responsible for and undertake to conclude all necessary and adequate insurance cover, including accident and health insurance, for their delegation members, including players, technical staff and officials, at their own expense for the whole duration of the YAC EHF EURO.
On request of the EHF a written confirmation has to be provided by the participating federations.

Host Federation(s)

- 21.3. The Host Federation is responsible for the insurance cover of all sites used for the YAC EHF EURO including hall, facilities and official zones. If the Host Federation is not the owner of the hall used, the Federation is also responsible for ensuring that the hall owner and/ or tenant in question provides a fully comprehensive insurance cover, including third party liability and property damage.
- 21.4. Hence, the Host Federation shall arrange, at its own expense insurance covers necessary to cover all risks and damages resulting from or relating to the staging and the organisation of a YAC EHF Championship.
- 21.5. In addition to Articles 21.1 and 21.2, the Host Federation staging the YAC EHF EURO must conclude at its own expense adequate insurance cover (including cancellation) for all risks arising from organising and staging the YAC EHF EURO, in accordance with its responsibilities. The insurance must fulfil the minimum conditions set out in the organization agreement between the EHF and the Host Federation and those communicated by the EHF accordingly.
- 21.6. A copy of all insurance contracts concluded by the Host Federation for the YAC EHF EURO must be provided to the EHF within the deadline set forth by the latter.

EHF

- 21.7. The EHF is responsible for the accident and health insurance of the nominated EHF Officials for the duration of their assignment.

Further requirements

FEDERATION

- 21.8. All insurances must cover the full period of the YAC EHF EURO, including the preparation and post-competition phase.
- 21.9. Claims for damages against the EHF are expressly excluded. Anyone involved must hold EHF harmless from any and all claims for liability arising in relation to their participation in the respective YAC EHF EURO.
- 21.10. The Host Federation and the EHF must not be held responsible of any claims resulting from accidents or illnesses.

XIV. EXCLUSIVITY

Article 22

EHF sponsors / partners exclusivity

- 22.1. The exclusivity of the EHF partners and official suppliers during the YAC EHF EURO must be complied with by the Host Federation.
- 22.2. The names and the respective categories of products/services of the EHF partners and official suppliers as well as the necessary measures and restrictions to be taken by the Host Federation will be communicated six (6) weeks prior to the beginning of the respective YAC EHF EURO at the latest.
- 22.3. The Host Federation must sent the EHF the list of all sponsors and partners (name, nationality, products/services) which will be represented during the YAC EHF EURO at the venue (including without limitation in the playing hall and all related areas) two (2) weeks prior to the beginning of the respective YAC EHF EURO at the latest.
- 22.4. Noncompliance with the required measures and restrictions in relation to EHF partner product/service exclusivity or any other kind of violation of the EHF partners and sponsors exclusivity during the YAC EHF EURO must be sanctioned according to the EHF Legal Regulations. In addition the respective individual/entity may be required to reimburse all damages occurred.

XV. ORGANISATION (VENUES-FACILITIES-EQUIPMENTS)

Article 23

General provisions

- 23.1. The Host Federation staging and organising the YAC EHF EURO is responsible for the YAC EHF EURO venues/playing halls set-up in accordance with the requirements defined by the EHF.
- 23.2. The EHF EURO Set-up Manual regulating the YAC EHF EURO venues/playing halls set-up is an integral part of the present Regulations.
- 23.3. The provisions of the Bidding Manual, of the organisation agreement between the Host Federation and the EHF and any additional requirement communicated by the EHF to the Host Federation are complementary to the present Regulations and to the EHF EURO Set-up Manual.
- 23.4. In case of discrepancy, the provisions of the Bidding Manual, of the organization agreement between the Host Federation and the EHF and the additional requirements communicated by the EHF must prevail upon those of the present Regulations and other EHF applicable Regulations or Manuals.

Choice venues/playing halls

- 23.5. YAC EHF EURO playing venues are proposed by the Host Federation to the EHF.
- 23.6. The Host Federation must propose to the EHF venues where the facilities (playing halls, hotels, transports...) meet the criteria defined in the EHF EURO Set-up Manual, in the Bidding Manual as well as any other criteria set-out in the organisation agreement between the Host Federation and the EHF or communicated by the EHF.
- 23.7. YAC EHF EURO matches must be played only in venues and playing halls which have been expressly agreed upon by the EHF following one or several inspections.

Venues/playing halls set-up

- 23.8. Regarding venues and playing halls set-up, the Host Federation must implement the requirements of the EHF EURO Set-Up Manual, of the Bidding Manual and the provisions of the organisation agreement between the host Member Federation and the EHF as well as any further requirements communicated by the EHF.

- 23.9. Subject to the foregoing, the following basic equipment and infrastructures must be prepared and set-up for each YAC EHF EURO match:

Judges' table – Support table

- 23.10. A judges' table and a support table must be set-up and installed in the playing hall.
- 23.11. The size, position and other requirements concerning the judges' table and the support table defined in the Bidding Manual and the organisation agreement between the Host Federation and the EHF must be complied with (enclosure 4).
- 23.12. The provisions of the IHF Rules of the Game regarding the size, position and other requirements concerning the judges' tables are not applicable to YAC EHF EURO matches.

Substitution area - chairs

- 23.13. A substitution area with substitution chairs must be set-up and installed in the playing hall.
- 23.14. The size, position and other requirements concerning the substitution area and the substitution chairs defined in the Bidding Manual and the organisation agreement between the Host Federation and the EHF must be complied with (enclosure 4).
- 23.15. The provisions of the IHF Rules of the Game regarding the size, position and other requirements concerning the substitution area and substitutes' benches are not applicable to YAC EHF EURO matches.

Time-keeping and score-taking apparatus

- 23.16. For all YAC EHF EURO matches, the playing halls must be equipped with an electric timekeeping (counting 0 to 30 minutes for each half) and score taking apparatus which can be read without difficulty and be operated from the judges' table. It is the official timekeeping apparatus and must be in full working order prior to and during matches.

Score boards

- 23.17. For all YAC EHF EURO matches, the playing halls must be equipped with two (2) score boards on each short side of the halls. The score boards must indicate at least the score, nations, time, playing time (counting 0 to 30 minutes for each half), 2 minutes suspensions. All indications must be synchronised between the two (2) boards.

Reserve clock

- 23.18. As a reserve, a large clock (approx. 25 cm in diameter) with minute and second hands must be available at the judges' table.

Match cards

- 23.19. A sufficient number of cards (size A4) matching EHF sample design must be at the disposal of the timekeeper for noting the numbers of the suspended players and the end of the suspension period. These cards must be placed on the judges' table, where visible and in a vertical position, clearly legible for both playing teams.
- 23.20. Three (3) green cards (size A5) showing the capital letter "T" must be at the disposal of the timekeeper for the team time-outs. They are handed over to the responsible members of the respective playing teams at the beginning of each half-time of the regular playing time.
- 23.21. A card to indicate that a player is injured must also be available.

Playing floor

- 23.22. The official EHF European Championship floor, with handball lines only, must be laid down in the playing hall for each YAC EHF EURO match.

Lighting

- 23.23. A lighting of a minimum of 1000 LUX shall be ensured in the playing hall.

Anti-doping facility

- 23.24. In all YAC EHF EURO playing halls, an anti-doping infrastructure complying with the WADA Anti-Doping Code and the EHF Regulations for Anti-Doping applicable at the date of the beginning of the Event must be set-up. Such infrastructure must include without limitation:
- An anti-doping room of at least 10m² with working infrastructure (table, chairs, control equipment, etc.) for the anti-doping control staff and a refrigerator
 - A direct access to a toilet
 - A waiting room

Playing balls

- 23.22. The matches of the YAC EHF EURO must be played with balls approved by the EHF. The EHF provides the balls to be used during the matches of the YAC EHF EURO. No other balls shall be used.

Seats for disqualified players

- 23.25. Seats in the spectators' stands must be reserved by the Host Federation for the players receiving a red card during the matches of the YAC EHF EURO. A person nominated by the Host Federation supervises those seats and ensure that the disqualified players remain in the defined stand area until the end of the draw for the anti-doping controls or, if no draw takes place, until the final whistle of the respective match.

Ambulance – first aid team

- 23.26. An ambulance with the required qualified personnel and a first aid team must be present in or in front of the playing halls during all matches of the YAC EHF EURO.

Training halls – Training schedule

- 23.27. The Host Federation must draw-up a training schedule for each participating team during the YAC EHF EURO in accordance with the requirements defined herein (Articles 11.6 & 11.7) and those communicated in due course by the EHF at least two (2) months prior to the beginning of the YAC EHF EURO. The training schedule must be fixed in such a way that teams playing against each other do not practice the one after the other in the same hall and that each team has the same opportunity to train on the main court during the YAC EHF EURO.
- 23.28. The training schedule must be approved by the EHF. Any change in the training schedule must be agreed on by the EHF and the Host Federation.

YAC EHF EURO draw

- 23.29. The Host Federation is responsible for the organisation in its country of the YAC EHF EURO draw defining the preliminary round groups. The Host Federation must organize the YAC EHF EURO draw as a public event meeting the requirements of the TV host broadcaster and any requirements communicated in due course by the EHF. The Host Federation must moreover ensure that the draw is made available via live stream on the official event website free of charge.

Others

- 23.30. The Host Federation must comply with and/or implement any other requirements related to the staging and organisation of the YAC EHF EURO defined in the Bidding Manual, in the organisation agreement between the Host Federation and the EHF and/or communicated by the EHF.

XVI. EHF OFFICIALS

Article 24

Definition

- 24.1. EHF Officials are EHF representatives, EHF delegates, EHF referees, EHF Office staff members as well as any other persons nominated by the EHF in relation with a YAC EHF EURO.

Code of Conduct

- 24.2. Any EHF Official nominated to participate in a YAC EHF EURO must sign the EHF Code of Conduct. During their assignment, the EHF Officials are bound by the obligations of the EHF Code of Conduct and the applicable EHF Regulations.

Article 25

EHF referees nomination

- 25.1. The EHF referees of the YAC EHF EURO are appointed by the EHF. The appointed EHF referees must acknowledge the EHF nomination and inform the EHF accordingly without delay.
- 25.2. The nomination of the EHF referees for a YAC EHF EURO can be withdrawn at the EHF's sole discretion. The EHF decisions in matter of referee nomination for the YAC EHF EURO are final.
- 25.3. The EHF referees nomination is communicated by the EHF to all parties concerned in due time prior to the beginning of the YAC EHF EURO.
- 25.4. For each YAC EHF EURO match, in due course before the match, the EHF assigns two (2) referee couples out of those nominated. The second referee couple are "reserve" referees. The EHF decision is final.

Arrival of referees

- 25.5. The EHF referees nominated for the YAC EHF EURO must arrive at the relevant venue on the date and time communicated by the EHF, as planned and organised by the Host Federation in cooperation with the EHF referees and the EHF.
- 25.6. If any of the referees does not arrive at the match venue as planned and organised, the EHF will take the appropriate decisions. If the EHF decides to replace the referees, such a decision is final and no protest against the person or nationality of the referee is allowed.

Refusal

- 25.7. If the appointed EHF referees are unable to fulfil a nomination, they shall inform the EHF without delay by phone and subsequently in writing. In this case, the EHF appoints alternative referees.

Unfit referees

- 25.8. If any of the referees becomes unfit before or during a match and is unable to officiate, the referee couple is replaced by the referees nominated as “reserve referees” for the respective match.

Special report

- 25.9. In case of direct disqualifications or any major incidents, the referees have to write an additional detailed report and give it to the EHF Office immediately after the end of the match.
- 25.10. In their report, the referees report in as much detail as possible on any incidents before, during and after the match, such as:
- Misconduct of players leading to direct disqualification
 - Unsportsmanlike behaviour by officials, members, supporters or anyone carrying out a function at a match on behalf of a Member Federation
 - Any other incidents
- 25.11. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the absence of report on an incident does not prevent the initiation of proceedings by the EHF.

Further tasks

- 25.12. The EHF referees nominated for the YAC EHF EURO must attend the Officials’ Conference taking place prior to the YAC EHF EURO and any preparatory activity defined as mandatory by the EHF.
- 25.13. The EHF referees nominated for the YAC EHF EURO must fulfil the preparatory tasks defined and communicated by the EHF. The Member Federations of the referees must supervise those tasks and send a written confirmation to the EHF regarding their completion by the nominated EHF referees within the deadline set-up by the EHF.

Article 26

EHF delegates nomination

- 26.1. The EHF delegates of the YAC EHF EURO are appointed by the EHF. The appointed EHF delegates must acknowledge the EHF nomination and inform the EHF accordingly without delay.
- 26.2. The nomination of the EHF delegates for a YAC EHF EURO can be withdrawn at EHF's sole discretion. The EHF decisions in matter of delegate nomination for the YAC EHF EURO are final.
- 26.3. The EHF delegates nomination is communicated by the EHF to all parties concerned in due time prior to the beginning of the YAC EHF EURO.
- 26.4. For each YAC EHF EURO match, in due course prior to the match, the EHF assigns two (2) delegates out of those appointed for the YAC EHF EURO: one (1) supervisor, one (1) observer. The EHF decision is final.

Arrival of delegates

- 26.5. The EHF delegates nominated for the YAC EHF EURO must arrive at the relevant venue on the date and time communicated by the EHF, as planned and organised by the Host Federation in cooperation with the EHF referees and the EHF.
- 26.6. If any of the delegates does not arrive at the match venue as planned and organised, the EHF will take the appropriate decisions. If the EHF decides to replace the delegates, such a decision is final and no protest against the person or nationality of the referee is allowed.

Refusal

- 26.7. If the appointed EHF delegates are unable to fulfil a nomination, they shall inform the EHF without delay by phone and subsequently in writing.
- 26.8. In this case, the EHF appoints alternative delegates.

General responsibility

- 26.9. The EHF delegates act on behalf of the EHF.
- 26.10. When on duty, the delegates must always carry a copy of the relevant EHF regulations as well as the IHF Rules of the Game.

- 26.11. The EHF delegate (supervisor) with the support of the EHF delegate (observer) supervises the conduct of the match and prevents any occurrences that may lead to a protest or a repetition of a match following EHF requirements. If necessary, the EHF delegate (supervisor) acts as mediator.
- 26.12. The EHF delegate (observer) guides and supports the referees and observes and assesses their performance. However, the EHF delegate (observer) is not a chief referee. Responsibility on the playing area rests solely with the EHF referees.
- 26.13. Nonetheless, the EHF delegates must interrupt the match if necessary and bring errors that may lead to a protest to the EHF referees' attention. Errors in this context do not mean decisions made by the referees on the basis of their observation of facts. The delegates must not make decisions but only make recommendations.
- 26.14. The EHF delegates must always sit at the judges' table to have a good view of the substitution area at any time and to be able to intervene if necessary.

Special report

- 26.15. The EHF delegates must supervise the respect by all participating entities and persons of the EHF rules and regulations applicable to a YAC EHF EURO, including without limitation of the present YAC EHF EURO Regulations and the EHF Advertising on Clothing Regulations.
- 26.16. If any violation of the EHF rules and regulations or a major incident is observed the EHF delegates must:
- Write a specific remark on the match report and cross the box "report follows"
 - Report such violation and/or incident in writing to the EHF Office immediately after the match.
- 26.17. In their reports, the delegates report in as much detail as possible on any violation/incidents before, during and after the match, such as:
- Incorrect teams line-up
 - Incorrect player clothing (number, advertisements...), thermo clothing, socks etc.
 - delay in the match throw-offs
 - Unsportsmanlike behaviour by officials, members, supporters or anyone carrying out a function at a match on behalf of a Member Federation
 - Any other incidents
- 26.18. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the absence of remark on the match report or of report on an incident does not prevent the initiation of legal proceedings by the EHF.

Digital Match report / Start List

- 26.19. The EHF delegate (supervisor) is responsible for the match report and the Start List.
- 26.20. Before the throw-off, the EHF delegate (supervisor) must check that the Start List is correct and take care that the Start List is confirmed and signed by an official of each playing team.
- 26.21. The YAC EHF EUROs shall be administered by the digital match report (DMR) system, the host Federations have the obligations to prepare the software for the scorekeeper.
- 26.22. The nominated EHF Delegates are responsible for the pre-prepared match report. The official delegation lists will be published on the delegate portal.
- 26.23. The host Federations shall offer a computer with internet access for the period right after the technical meeting (for the preparation of the match report) and also right after the match (for the completion of the match report).
- 26.24. The EHF Delegate shall take/print the DMR ticket and provide it to the scorekeeper.
- 26.25. The host federations shall secure that the scorekeeper duly handles the provided Digital Match Report (DMR) ticket by opening such ticket prior to the match. The scorekeeper shall put the match data directly into digital match report during the match and he/she shall compare the match data with the EHF Delegate during the half time and after the end of the match, following that he/she completes the digital match report.
- 26.26. The host federations shall secure that the timekeeper managing the match data (goals, time, etc.) on the score board shall continuously checking the data on the scoreboard with the EHF Delegate.
- 26.27. After the match the EHF Delegate shall check the digital match report with his match data and statistics and he/she shall sign the digital match.
- 26.28. Further requirements and deadlines regarding the digital match report and the Start List defined in the "Off Court Officiating Guidelines" and in the "Start List, Match Report, and Daily Bulletin" information communicated in due course to the EHF delegates by the EHF prior to the beginning of the YAC EHF EURO must be complied with.

Further tasks

- 26.29. The EHF delegates must know, comply with and fulfil any task defined in the "Off Court Officiating Guidelines" communicated by the EHF in due course prior to the beginning of the YAC EHF EURO.

- 26.30. In particular, the EHF delegates must cooperate with the timekeeper and the scorekeeper as defined in the “Off Court Officiating Guidelines”.
- 26.31. The EHF delegates nominated for the YAC EHF EURO must attend the Officials’ Conference taking place prior to the YAC EHF EURO and any preparatory activity defined as mandatory by the EHF.
- 26.32. The EHF delegates nominated for the YAC EHF EURO must fulfil the preparatory tasks defined and communicated by the EHF.

Article 27

Other Officials

- 27.1. In addition to the EHF delegates, the EHF may appoint further Officials for supervising different fields related to the event (e.g. marketing, security...).
- 27.2. The duties and competence of those Officials are to be defined with each individual appointment.

EHF representatives

- 27.3. The EHF representatives act on behalf of the EHF. They represent the EHF in official activities.
- 27.4. They must know, comply with and fulfil any task defined in the “Task Management Profile Manual” communicated by the EHF in due course prior to the beginning of the YAC EHF EURO.

Score-taker, timekeeper and announcer

- 27.5. The score-taker, timekeeper and announcer are not EHF Officials. They are appointed by the Host Federation.

XVII. FINANCIAL PROVISIONS

Article 28

A. Member Federations

Travel costs

- 28.1. The Member Federations must organise the travel of their delegation to and from the playing venue. The place of arrival of the delegation must be the nearest international airport or train station from the playing venue.
- 28.2. The travel expenses of any and all delegation members to and from the playing venue must be borne by the respective Member Federation.

Visa costs

- 28.3. All expenses arising from the procurement of visas for the members of the entire delegation must be borne by the respective Member Federation.

Entry fee/ Lump-sum advance payment

- 28.4. The entry fee and advance payment defined under Article 5 must be paid by the respective Member Federation within the announced deadline to enter the YAC EHF EURO.

Daily rate

- 28.5. For the board, lodging and local transport of the delegations at the YAC EHF EURO venue(s) of a delegation of twenty-one (21) members or less, each Member Federation must pay a daily rate to the Host Federation.
- 28.6. The daily rate for the twenty-one (21) delegation members is announced to the Member Federations by the Host Federation during the bidding process.
- 28.7. Such rate must be paid to the EHF account within the deadline duly communicated by the latter to the participating Member Federations.
- 28.8. The number of days is the basis for the calculation of the global rate per delegation. The total is calculated from 12pm (noon) on the day of arrival at the venue (the day prior to the first match day at the earliest) to 12pm (noon) on the day of departure (the day after to the last match day at the latest). The day of arrival and of departure are calculated as one (1) day when charging the daily rate (additional meals such as breakfast on the arrival day and lunch and lunch on the departure day have to be paid extra).

28.9. The board, lodging and local transport of additional delegation members up to twenty-five (25) persons per delegation is organised by the Host Federation upon payment by the respective Member Federation of a daily rate within the deadline communicated by the EHF. The daily rate for the four (4) additional delegation members is agreed upon by the EHF and the Host Federation. The daily rate for the additional delegation members must be paid directly to the Host Federation account.

Additional days of stays/ Additional persons

28.10. If agreed by the Host Federation, the Host Federation may organise the board, lodging and local transport of more than twenty-one (21) delegation members, i.e. twenty-one (21) delegation members plus four (4) additional persons, upon request of a Member Federation at the respective Member Federation's costs.

28.11. If agreed by the EHF and the Host Federation, a delegation may arrive before the YAC EHF EURO and/or leave after the YAC EHF EURO a few days before/after the planned dates.

28.12. All costs and expenses related to those additional days at the venue must be borne by the respective Member Federation. The daily rate per delegation member for each additional day agreed upon by the EHF and the Host Federation is communicated in due time to the Member Federations by the Host Federation and must be paid within the deadline set forth by the latter.

Solidarity contribution

28.13. Each Member Federation participating in the Competition receives a solidarity contribution from the EHF amounting to:

- €2,000² for Women's 19 and Men's 20
- €4,000³ for Women's 17 and Men's 18

transport of the participating delegations from their place of arrival to the respective venue(s) and between the venues and expenses and costs for all kinds of activities at the venue (rest day programme, receptions, banquets, etc.).

Costs related to the delegations

- 29.2. The board, lodging and local transport of the delegations at the venue(s) for the duration of the YAC EHF EURO is organised by the Host Federation for up to a maximum of twenty-one (21) plus four (4) additional persons per delegation and up to a maximum of twelve (12) days (one day prior to the first match day at the earliest and one day after the last match day at the latest) against payment of a daily rate. The respective daily rates are defined as stated in Articles 28.6 and 28.9.
- 29.3. The Host Federation may agree, upon a Member Federation's request, to organise the board, lodging and local transport of additional delegation members.

EHF Officials' costs

- 29.4. The Host Federation must bear the following costs and expenses of the nominated EHF Officials (definition under article 24.1):
- a) Travel expenses to and from the venue (refunded on production of receipts/proof of ticket purchase) based on those criteria:

Travel by train/bus/boat:

Reimbursement of first class return tickets for train/bus/boat

Travel by plane:

Reimbursement of return tickets in economy class (other specifications defined by the EHF apply)

Travel by car (allowed up to a maximum distance of 600 km one way):

Reimbursement of first class return tickets for train/bus/boat

Taxi journeys in the home town or during a trip:

(e.g.: transfer between airports) may be refunded upon the presentation of the respective receipts

Travel by car in the home town (to and from airport or train station):

May be charged with €0,50 per driven kilometre and reimbursement of the airport parking costs

Parking costs at airports are reimbursed by the Host Federation only up to three (3) days. Exceptions to this rule may be granted to an EHF Official by the EHF upon a respective request prior to the travel date.

To obtain the reimbursement of their travel from home to the airport and from the airport to home, the EHF Officials must choose the cheapest transport mean between bus, taxi, train and car.

- b) Any expenses for visas.
 - c) For the duration of their assignment during the YAC EHF EURO, the costs of board, lodging as well as their transport costs within the territory of the Host Federation.
 - d) Daily allowances amounting to €60⁴ for every travel day and per day for the duration of the stay.
 - e) A match fee of €50⁵ per match day for delegates.
 - f) Any and all other expenses incurred within and outside the host country in connection with the YAC EHF EURO upon approval of the EHF.
- 29.5. The Host Federation must ensure that all EHF Officials can leave the host country with all funds paid to them by the Host Federation during the period of their stay, without any deductions or other problems.

Article 30

Tickets and accreditations

- 30.1. The Host Federation must prepare an accreditation system for the YAC EHF EURO in accordance with the Bidding Manual, the EHF EURO Set-up Manual, the applicable provisions of the organisation agreement between the Host Federation and the EHF as well as any requirement communicated by the EHF. The characteristics of the accreditation system must be approved by the EHF. The EHF decision is final.
- 30.2. Members of the participating delegations are provided with spectator places/tickets free of charge for matches in their group and in their parallel groups on rest days, upon request.

⁴ Except as otherwise provided by the EXEC Committee or the EHF Congress decision

⁵ Except as otherwise provided by the EXEC Committee or the EHF Congress decision

XVIII. EXPLOITATION OF COMMERCIAL RIGHTS

Article 31

Marketing and media rights

- 31.1. Subject to the retained EHF rights defined in Articles 31.2, 31.3 and 31.4, the Host Federation is granted the exclusive right to exploit the marketing and audio-visual rights of the YAC EHF EURO and all related activities (draw, opening, closing ceremonies, etc.).
- 31.2. The EHF retains the following marketing rights, which it may use free of charge: two (2) bands of advertising with a maximum length of six (6) metres or five (5) minutes LED time per match within the range covered by the TV cameras; one (1) additional band of advertising with a maximum length of six (6) metres in a central position or two and half (2.5) minutes LED time per match, two goal-side floor stickers (position D) and one (1) floor advertising in the middle circle during all matches of the YAC EHF EURO.
- 31.3. One six (6) metre band of advertising in a central position (or 2.5 minutes LED time) within the range covered by the TV cameras per match is used by the EHF for event identity purpose. If the EHF wishes to use its other retained marketing rights, it must inform the Host Federation no later than six (6) weeks prior to the beginning of the YAC EHF EURO.
- 31.4. The EHF reserves the following audio-visual rights on a non-exclusive basis for its own use, for use by national federations and for use by EHF partners or official suppliers: live-feed for operation of observer system, archive rights for promotion and development purposes, live and on-demand streaming of all matches on EHF OTT platform and right to produce and edit content including highlight clips and near-live content.
- 31.5. The advertising set-up shall be as follows:

Set-up YAC EHF EURO

Live streaming

- 31.6. A live and on-demand streaming of all matches of the YAC EHF EURO must be made available by the Host Federation free of charge to the EHF for streaming on the EHF OTT platform.

Video recordings

- 31.7. Upon application to the EHF, all delegations are permitted to make video recordings of the YAC EHF EURO matches for teaching and training purposes.
- 31.8. Video recordings, however, may only be made by one (1) member of the respective delegation, using one (1) camera. Such video recordings must be used solely for the purposes of internal team preparation and match tactic information (education of players). The use of the video recordings for any other purpose whatsoever, including (without limitation) a commercial exploitation, is forbidden.
- 31.9. The person of the delegation wishing to record a match on video must have a permit issued by the EHF. Persons who do not present an EHF permit may be asked to leave the hall.
- 31.10. Due to space limitations in a playing hall, restrictions on video recordings may have to be imposed by the Host Federation. Such restrictions must be agreed with the EHF.
- 31.11. During the YAC EHF EURO, videos of the matches played are made available free of charge to the EHF on each respective match day for analysis. After the YAC EHF EURO, the Host Federation must provide the EHF, free of charge, with videos of matches as specified by the EHF.

Video system

- 31.12. A YAC EHF EURO match video service is put in place by the Host Federation for the duration of the YAC EHF EURO. Videos of the matches played shall therefore be made available by the Host Federation in each venue on each respective match day.
- 31.13. The rules and principles governing this system are decided and announced by the EHF in due time prior to the YAC EHF EURO.

Article 32

Personality rights

- 32.1. All participating Member Federations, including the Host Federation, grant the EHF the right (royalty-free) to use photos and graphic materials of players and officials as well as Member Federations names, emblems and players uniforms within the framework of the Competition for non-commercial purposes.

- 32.2. All participating Member Federations, including the Host Federation, grant the EHF the right (royalty-free) to use any photo, any material (print material, ads, internet, product presentation, video etc.) produced for/at the YAC EHF EURO matches for handball/ EHF competitions promotions and sport development (training, teaching, etc.) purposes at any time during or after the Competition.
- 32.3. The EHF has the right to transfer these aforementioned rights of use to partner companies for the same purposes.
- 32.4. Each participating Member Federation, including the Host Federation, must obtain the consent of the respective players and officials participating to the YAC EHF EURO to the use of their image as defined here above. Each participating Member Federation must hold the EHF and its partners harmless from any legal action from a player concerning the player's image rights.

XIX. PROTESTS/VIOLATIONS – LEGAL PROVISIONS

Article 33

EHF Legal Regulations

- 33.1. The provisions of the EHF Legal Regulations, the EHF List of Penalties and the EHF Catalogue of Administrative Sanctions apply to all legal matters including procedural aspects and disciplinary offences committed by the teams, delegations, individuals and/or EHF Officials at the YAC EHF EUROs unless stipulated otherwise in the present chapter.

Competent Bodies

Jurisdiction

- 33.2. Under the provisions defined in the present chapter, the Disciplinary Commission and the Jury are responsible for disciplinary adjudication, punishing violations of applicable regulations including those of an administrative nature falling within the scope of Article 21 of the Legal Regulations, settling dispute including protests and deciding upon any other issues arising from the YAC EHF EURO.

Disciplinary Commission

- 33.3. The Disciplinary Commission is responsible as the body of first instance.
- 33.4. The Disciplinary Commission is composed of EHF delegates nominated to the YAC EHF EURO.

Jury

- 33.5. The Jury is responsible as the body of second instance. It is the highest EHF legal body at the YAC EHF EURO.
- 33.6. The Jury consists of the EHF Court of Appeal acting as an ad hoc body.
- 33.7. Any decision made by the Disciplinary Commission according to the aforementioned provisions may be appealed to the Jury.

Regulations Infringements/Disciplinary Matters

- 33.8. Delegation members (including players and team officials) and EHF Officials agree to comply with the present Regulations as well as all applicable regulations as defined in Article 3 and EHF directives. They must notably:

- Respect the spirit of fair play and non-violence and behave accordingly
 - Refrain from any activity that endangers the integrity of the YAC EHF EURO and bring the sport of handball into disrepute
 - Refrain from anti-doping violations as defined in the EHF Regulations for Anti-Doping
 - Observe the EHF Codes of Conduct
- 33.9. If deemed appropriate by the EHF to ensure the proper running of the YAC EHF EURO and/or the respect of the applicable regulations during the YAC EHF EURO, violations of the present Regulations and/or any other EHF regulations applicable to the YAC EHF EURO, by any team, delegation, individual and/or EHF Official are examined, decided upon and sanctioned by the Disciplinary Commission and the Jury (in appeal) following an express procedure. For the avoidance of doubt, the present dispositions also apply to direct disqualifications.
- 33.10. The Member Federations of the respective delegations or teams, individuals and/or the EHF Officials against whom the proceedings are initiated, must have the possibility to provide a statement of defence.
- 33.11. In those cases, the deadlines applicable to protests are not applicable and shall be defined by the competent legal body within the course of the proceedings.
- 33.12. The carrying out of legal/disciplinary proceedings as defined herein is independent of any reporting obligations.

Direct disqualification

- 33.13. Any player sent off by the referees with a direct disqualification in a YAC EHF EURO match is not eligible to play in the respective team's next match of the current tournament.

Protests

Definition

- 33.14. Under the present chapter, "protest" shall mean: any match-related claim which may have an impact on the result of an YAC EHF EURO match.

Exclusion of protests

- 33.15. With regard to all and any YAC EHF EURO matches, protests shall not be permitted when relating to:
- a) Date, time, venue and draw of the matches.

- b) Nomination of referees and delegates.
- c) Referee's decisions on facts in accordance with the Rules of the Game including those based on EHF delegates' recommendations.

Procedure

- 33.16. Protests shall be handed over in writing and in English to the EHF delegate (supervisor) of the match within one (1) hour after the end of the relevant match.
- 33.17. Moreover a protest fee of €1,000 shall be paid by the claimant to the EHF. This amount shall be paid directly to the EHF delegate (supervisor) or shall be transferred to the EHF bank account at the same time as the claim is handed over. A written proof of payment of the protest fee in the defined deadline shall be deemed sufficient.
- 33.18. If the protest is fully granted, the protest fee is refunded to the claimant; otherwise it is forfeited to the credit of the EHF.
- 33.19. The reasons for the protest as well as any relevant statement shall be submitted in writing to the EHF delegate or to the EHF Office by the claimant no later than 9:00hrs local time, the day after the relevant match.
- 33.20. The deadlines and fees for protests apply equally for any additional information submitted in connection with the YAC EHF EURO.
- 33.21. The Disciplinary Commission takes a decision by simple majority on the protest no later than 12:00hrs (noon) local time, the day after the relevant match. Such a decision is announced to the relevant parties.

Appeals

- 33.22. Unless otherwise provided in the decision of the Disciplinary Commission, an appeal against a decision of the Disciplinary Commission shall be received by the EHF Office in writing no later than 20:00hrs local time the same day the Disciplinary Commission decision is communicated to the parties.
- 33.23. Besides, an appeal fee of €1,000 shall be paid by the appellant to the EHF. This amount shall be paid directly to the EHF delegate (supervisor) or shall be transferred to the EHF bank account at the same time as the appeal is filed/requested. A written proof of payment of the appeal fee in the defined deadline shall be deemed sufficient.

- 33.24. If the appeal is fully granted, the fee shall be refunded; otherwise the appeal fee is forfeited to the credit of the EHF.
- 33.25. Such an appeal request is transferred to the Jury. The Jury makes a decision by simple majority following an express procedure. Such a decision is announced to the relevant parties.

Eligibility to play

- 33.26. The submission of protests concerning eligibility to play is not subject to any mandatory deadline.

EHF Court of Arbitration (ECA)

- 33.27. Any issue decided upon by the Jury may be brought by any of the relevant parties before the ECA. The Rules of Arbitration for the ECA apply.
- 33.28. The initiation of proceedings before the ECA on a specific issue does not suspend the implementation of the decision taken by Jury on such an issue, unless decided otherwise by the ECA in accordance with the Rules of Arbitration for the ECA.

Arising costs

- 33.29. In principle the actual costs for personnel and material arising from the activities of the Disciplinary Commission and the Jury shall be charged in connection with the procedure. Rules governing the apportionment and payment of costs related to the EHF bodies' legal proceedings by and between the parties are stated in Article 48 of the EHF Legal Regulations.

Exclusion of liability

- 33.30. The EHF shall not be liable for any third-party liability claims arising from the execution of single matches or any other events in connection with the YAC EHF EURO.

XX. ANTI-DOPING

Article 34

Doping control

- 34.1. Doping controls may take place before, during and after each YAC EHF EURO in accordance with the EHF Regulations for Anti-Doping. As of the registration of their teams to the YAC EHF EURO, the participating Member Federations must fill in the official “whereabouts” forms and send them to the EHF and the EHF Anti-Doping Official/Unit (EAU). The “where-about” forms must be regularly updated by the participating Member Federations and communicated accordingly to the EHF and the EHF Anti-Doping Official/Unit (EAU) prior and during the YAC EHF EURO.
- 34.2. The transport of the samples, the necessary support to YAC EHF EURO Anti-Doping Official as well as any arrangements related to anti-doping must be under the responsibility of the Host Federation.
- 34.3. The EHF Regulations for Anti-Doping, their enclosures and the WADA’s Anti-Doping Code including the list of banned substances are an integral part of these YAC EHF EURO Regulations.
- 34.4. In case of anti-doping rule violations, EHF will initiate disciplinary proceedings against the perpetrators and take the appropriate disciplinary measures in accordance with the EHF Legal Regulations, the EHF List of Penalties and the EHF Regulations for Anti-Doping. This may include the imposition of provisional measures.
- 34.5. Member Federations must immediately inform the EHF of any decision at national level sanctioning a player for doping (including interim measures of protection/ temporary injunction). A copy of the decision must be sent to the EHF Office. Decisions of Member Federations concerning doping confirmed by the EHF Anti-Doping Unit will be automatically implemented by the EHF at European level.

EHF Anti-Doping activities

- 34.6. Delegation members (including players and team officials) shall participate in the Anti-Doping activities organised by the EHF within the frame of the YAC EHF EURO.

XXI. SPECIAL REGULATIONS

Article 35

Qualification for World Championships

WU20/MU21

- 35.1. Based on the places available to the continents for the WU20 and MU21 World Championships, the top ranked teams of the W19 and M20 YAC EHF EURO qualify directly for the IHF World Championship of the same age category and gender.

The last ranked teams of the W19 or M20 YAC EHF EURO, not being qualified for the next WU20 or MU21 WCh, play together with the winners (and/or 2nd ranked teams depending on the number of places available) of the W19 or M20 YAC EHF Championships for the last (maximum 2) places for the WCh. This competition will be played with a maximum number of eight (8) teams in the National Team Weeks (in January in the year of the WCh for M20/MU21 and in November/December in the year before the WCh for W19/W20).

- 35.2. Further places can be directly assigned by the EHF on the basis of the respective YAC EHF EURO ranking, depending on the number of places available for Europe.

MU19/WU18

- 35.3. Based on the places available to the continents for the WU18 and MU19 World Championships, the top ranked teams of the W17 and M18 YAC EHF EURO, as well as the winners of the W17 and M18 YAC EHF Championships qualify directly for the IHF World Championship of the same age category and gender.

XXII. CLOSING PROVISIONS

Article 36

- 36.1. All enclosures form an integral part of these regulations.
- 36.2. These regulations were adopted by the EHF Executive Committee on 23 September 2011, came into force on 1 October 2011, and were lastly amended by the EHF Executive Committee in September 2018.
- 36.3. Any amendment to the present regulations decided by the EHF Executive Committee and/or the EHF Congress will be communicated via circulars or reports to the EHF Member Federations.
