- CSKA have nine points, more than any other team in the DELO EHF Champions League 2020/21, following a draw with Györi Audi ETO KC and four wins
- Odense Håndbold are on eight points from six games
- CSKA are one of four unbeaten teams in the CL, alongside Györ, Rostov-Don and Vipers Kristiansand
- CSKA are in their maiden CL season, Odense in their second season following their debut in 2018/19
- The two teams have not duelled before; also, Odense have not won a European Cup match in Russia so far, losing to Rostov and Lada Togliatti
- Odense defeated Lada in the EHF Cup quarter-final last season; two Lada players have since joined CSKA: Elena Mikhaylichenko and Eva Demidovich
- Odense will face two Danes in this MOTW: Coach Jan Leslie and line player Kathrine Heindahl, who moved from Odense to CSKA in the summer of 2020

- Leslie has worked in Russia before, with Rostov in 2014-16; he returned to Russia and joined CSKA in 2019
- Odense coach Ulrik Kirkely is also at the helm of the women's national team of Japan, the host nation of the postponed Olympic Games next summer
- One Odense player has played in Russia: left back Lois Abbingh was with Rostov for two seasons (2018-20)
- Abbingh joined fellow Dutch players Tess Wester and Nycke Groot at Odense in the summer of 2020
- Abbingh will face two former Rostov teammates in this MOTW: Anna Sedoykina and Marina Sudakova, who both moved from Rostov to CSKA in the off-season
- Three CSKA players have been with Danish clubs in the past: Brazilian goalkeeper Chana Masson, Swedish defence specialist Sabina Jacobsen, and Danish line player Kathrine Heindahl
- Both Chana Masson (2015-17) and Kathrine Heindahl (2010-11 and 2017-20) actually played for Odense, Sabina Jacobsen played for Randers and Midtjylland.
- CSKA's 19-year-old Elena Mikhaylichenko is second on the CL top scorers list with 32 goals and Odense's Nycke Groot is third with 25; both well behind leader Ana Gros (Brest Bretagne Handball) with 48
- MOTW features two Brazilian (CSKA's Chana Masson and Odense's Jessica Quintino) and two Swedish players (CSKA's Sabina Jacobsen and Odense's Angelica Wallén)
- Chana Masson is the second oldest player in the CL; turning 42 in December, the CSKA goalkeeper is 20 days younger than Brest goalkeeper Sandra Pouchart
- 158cm-tall Ayaka Ikehara, the only Japanese player in the CL, is the smallest player in the competition
