- The MOTW in round 3 of the EHF Champions League Women features two teams that are looking to bounce back from heavy defeats last week.
- FTC ran into their biggest loss ever in the competition, going down 40:20 at BBM Bietigheim; Brest were beaten 33:26 at home by CSM Bucuresti.
- Only HC Lokomotiva Zagreb (40) and DHK Baník Most (45) have scored fewer goals than FTC (47) so far.
- FTC and Brest also shared a group in the CL last season, when both teams won their home game.
- FTC play their 23rd CL season; Brest their sixth.
- Brest played at the EHF FINAL4 once – in 2021, when they reached the final; FTC are still aiming for their first participation in the season-ending event in Budapest.
- Both coaches worked with national teams in the past: FTC's Gábor Elek led Hungary until August 2021; Brest's Pablo Morel was assistant coach of Jackson Richardson at the men's national team of Gabon in 2017.

- Elek is in his 16th season as FTC coach; Morel only in his second as Brest coach.

- Both sides ended as runners-up in their domestic league last season: FTC behind Györi Audi ETO KC in Hungary; Brest behind Metz Handball in France.

- FTC did win the Hungarian cup, though.

- Brest saw key players like IHF World Player of the Year Sandra Toft and Olympic and world champion Kalidiatou Niakaté leave the club in the summer of 2022.

- FTC signed internationally experienced players like Serbian duo Andrea Lekic and Dragana Cvijic, French Olympic, world and EHF EURO champion Beatrice Edwige, and Hungarian defence specialist Zsuzsanna Tomori.

- Edwige, who played for Metz in the past and had stints at Györ and Rostov-Don before joining FTC last season, will face fellow French internationals Pauletta Foppa, Pauline Coatanea, Alicia Toublanc, and Brest team captain Coralie Lassource.

- The best shooters of both teams are on 13 goals so far: FTC's Emily Bölk and Brest's Djurdjina Jaukovic.

- Brest have players from six different nations (FRA, CRO, MNE, NOR, POL, SWE); FTC count on five nationalities in their squad (HUN, FRA, GER, NED, SRB).

- Injury report – FTC: Anikó Kovacsics (maternity leave), Blanka Bíró (knee surgery), Alicia Stolle (hand operation); Brest: n/a.
