A year on from watching Barça clinch their record-extending 11th EHF Champions League title at the LANXESS arena in Cologne, we are ready to do it all again! 16 of the best teams from across the continent began the Road to Cologne for the chance to lift the most coveted trophy in men's club handball, and now only four remain. Welcome to the TruckScout24 EHF FINAL4 2025!

This time last year, Barça returned to the summit of European handball by beating Aalborg Håndbold in a final that was worthy of the captivating season that had unfolded before it. After another high-quality season in Europe's premier club competition, the TruckScout24 EHF FINAL4 2025 is set to be even better.

Barça are back once again for their seventh consecutive trip to Cologne and hopes of a fourth trophy in five seasons are high among fans of the Spanish club, despite being pushed hard by OTP Bank - PICK Szeged in the quarter-finals. However, standing in their way in the semi-final at 15:00 CEST are the only other team to have taken the title in recent seasons, SC Magdeburg, who won their second EHF Champions League crown in 2023 and beat One Veszprém HC by one goal over two legs in this year's quarter-finals. Saturday's second match, at 18:00 CEST, will see a repeat of their thrilling semi-final from two years ago, which Magdeburg won by the finest of margins. If their meeting is half as exciting this time, fans will be in for a treat!

Before the two recent champions lock horns, the action gets underway between two teams seeking their first ever EHF Champions League title. 2018 finalists HBC Nantes are back in Cologne for the first time since a fourth-placed finish in 2021, while their opponents, Füchse Berlin, have only reached the LANXESS arena once before, when they left without a win back in 2012. Both sides have excellent European pedigrees, as proven by them getting the better of the likes of Industria Kielce, Sporting CP, Orlen Wisla Plock and Aalborg Håndbold on the Road to Cologne, yet the biggest prize in club handball is missing from their respective trophy cabinets. Their determination to put that right will make their meeting a semi-final to savour.

Following Saturday's semi-finals, the action reaches its crescendo on Sunday, with the 3rd place match at 15:00 CEST followed by the final of the TruckScout24 EHF FINAL4 2025 at 18:00 CEST, when we discover who will be champions of Europe for the 2024/25 season. One thing is for certain – in such a high-class field, whichever side lifts the trophy will be worthy winners.

Enjoy the TruckScout24 EHF FINAL4 2025!

COVERING THE TRUCKSCOUT24 EHF FINAL4 2025 IN COLOGNE

ACCREDITATIONS

You can collect your accreditation from the accreditation centre at LANXESS arena. Please bring your confirmation email from the EHF and photo ID. The accreditation centre is located in the northwest of LANXESS arena outdoor area, access is from the western side entrances.

Opening hours accreditation centre:

Thursday 12 June: 08:00 - 18:00 CEST

Friday 13 June: 08:00 - 18:00 CEST

Saturday 14 June: 08:00 - 18:00 CEST

Sunday 15 June: 10:00 - 15:00 CEST

For further information please call the accreditation hotline: +49 (0)160-5730356.

PARKING

If you arrive by car, you can use the arena car parks P1, P2 and P4 for parking. You will receive an exit ticket upon request at the info desk in the media centre.

MEDIA CENTRE

The media centre is located at “Clubraum West” inside LANXESS arena; the entrance is opposite to the accreditation centre. The media centre is located close to the media seats and the mixed zone. The press conference room is directly next to the media working area.

Workspaces are available in the media working area. Food should not be consumed in the media working area. A dedicated media catering is available.

Opening hours media centre:

Friday 13 June: 10:00 - 23:00 CEST

Saturday 14 June: 10:00 - 23:00 CEST

Sunday 15 June: 10:00 - 23:00 CEST

CATERING

Coffee, soft drinks, and snacks are available in the catering area in the south-west of the media centre, just next to the mixed zone. Media representatives get a symbol integrated on their accreditation to indicate that they are permitted access to media catering. Please note that smoking is not permitted inside LANXESS arena.

MEDIA TRIBUNE

Media seats (with tables, cabled internet, Wi-Fi, and electricity points) are located in sector 214 of the lower tier in the west of LANXESS arena. A number of seats have been allocated prior to the event to written media representatives. Media volunteers can show you to your seats.

QUOTES SERVICE

Throughout the tournament and starting on Friday, the TruckScout24 EHF FINAL4 media team offers a flash quotes service. All quotes will be published on the official website and in the news section of the Media portal.

In addition to the flash quotes, the EHF Media Team will offer video statements throughout the event via the following link: https://bit.ly/TS24EHFFINAL4_2025_videostatements.

Same as the flash quotes, video statements will be available from the media call on Friday and after each match. When used in the broadcast or online video coverage, the mandatory video credit to the EHF must be used, e.g.: Source: EHF; Courtesy of EHF; Video credit: EHF.

PRESS CONFERENCES

The press conference room is located in the media centre of LANXESS arena. The post-match press conferences start approximately 20 minutes after each match (or the winners’ ceremony) with the head coaches and key players. The attendance of the teams can be split; in that case, the head coach and a player of the losing team appear first. Press conferences are held in English, but questions in the participants’ native language can be asked afterwards.

INFORMATION FOR PHOTOGRAPHERS

Photographers have to pick up their photo bibs from the info desk in the media centre. A small deposit might be required to ensure the return of the bibs after the event.

The mandatory photo briefings for photographers take place in the media centre. Photographers receive information about the matches and the procedures for the winners’ ceremony. The photo briefing schedule is as follows:

- Saturday 14 June: 14:00 CEST
- Sunday 15 June: 13:30 CEST

Photo positions are located behind the goals. Photographers must wear their accreditation and the bib to be able to access them, and are requested to take their places in the photo positions ahead of the start of each game.

MEDIA GET-TOGETHER, 14 JUNE

We invite all media representatives to join us on Saturday evening for a Kölsch and a bite at the EHF FINAL4 Media Get-together at “Gaffel am Dom” at Bahnhofsvorplatz 1, 50667 Cologne from 20:30 CEST (or whenever you finish your work). The EHF and EHF Marketing GmbH are grateful to the City of Cologne for hosting this event.

No registration is required, but remember to bring your media accreditation – entry will not be possible without this.

FRIDAY 13 JUNE 2025

MEDIA CALLS

The team media calls take place at the RadissonBlu Hotel (Messe-Kreisel 3, 50679 Cologne). Media representatives are kindly asked to use the main entrance to the hotel; please pick up your media accreditation before attending the media calls.

From each of the four teams, the head coach and five key players are available for approximately 30 minutes for interviews and photos.

MACHINESEEKER EHF CHAMPIONS LEAGUE

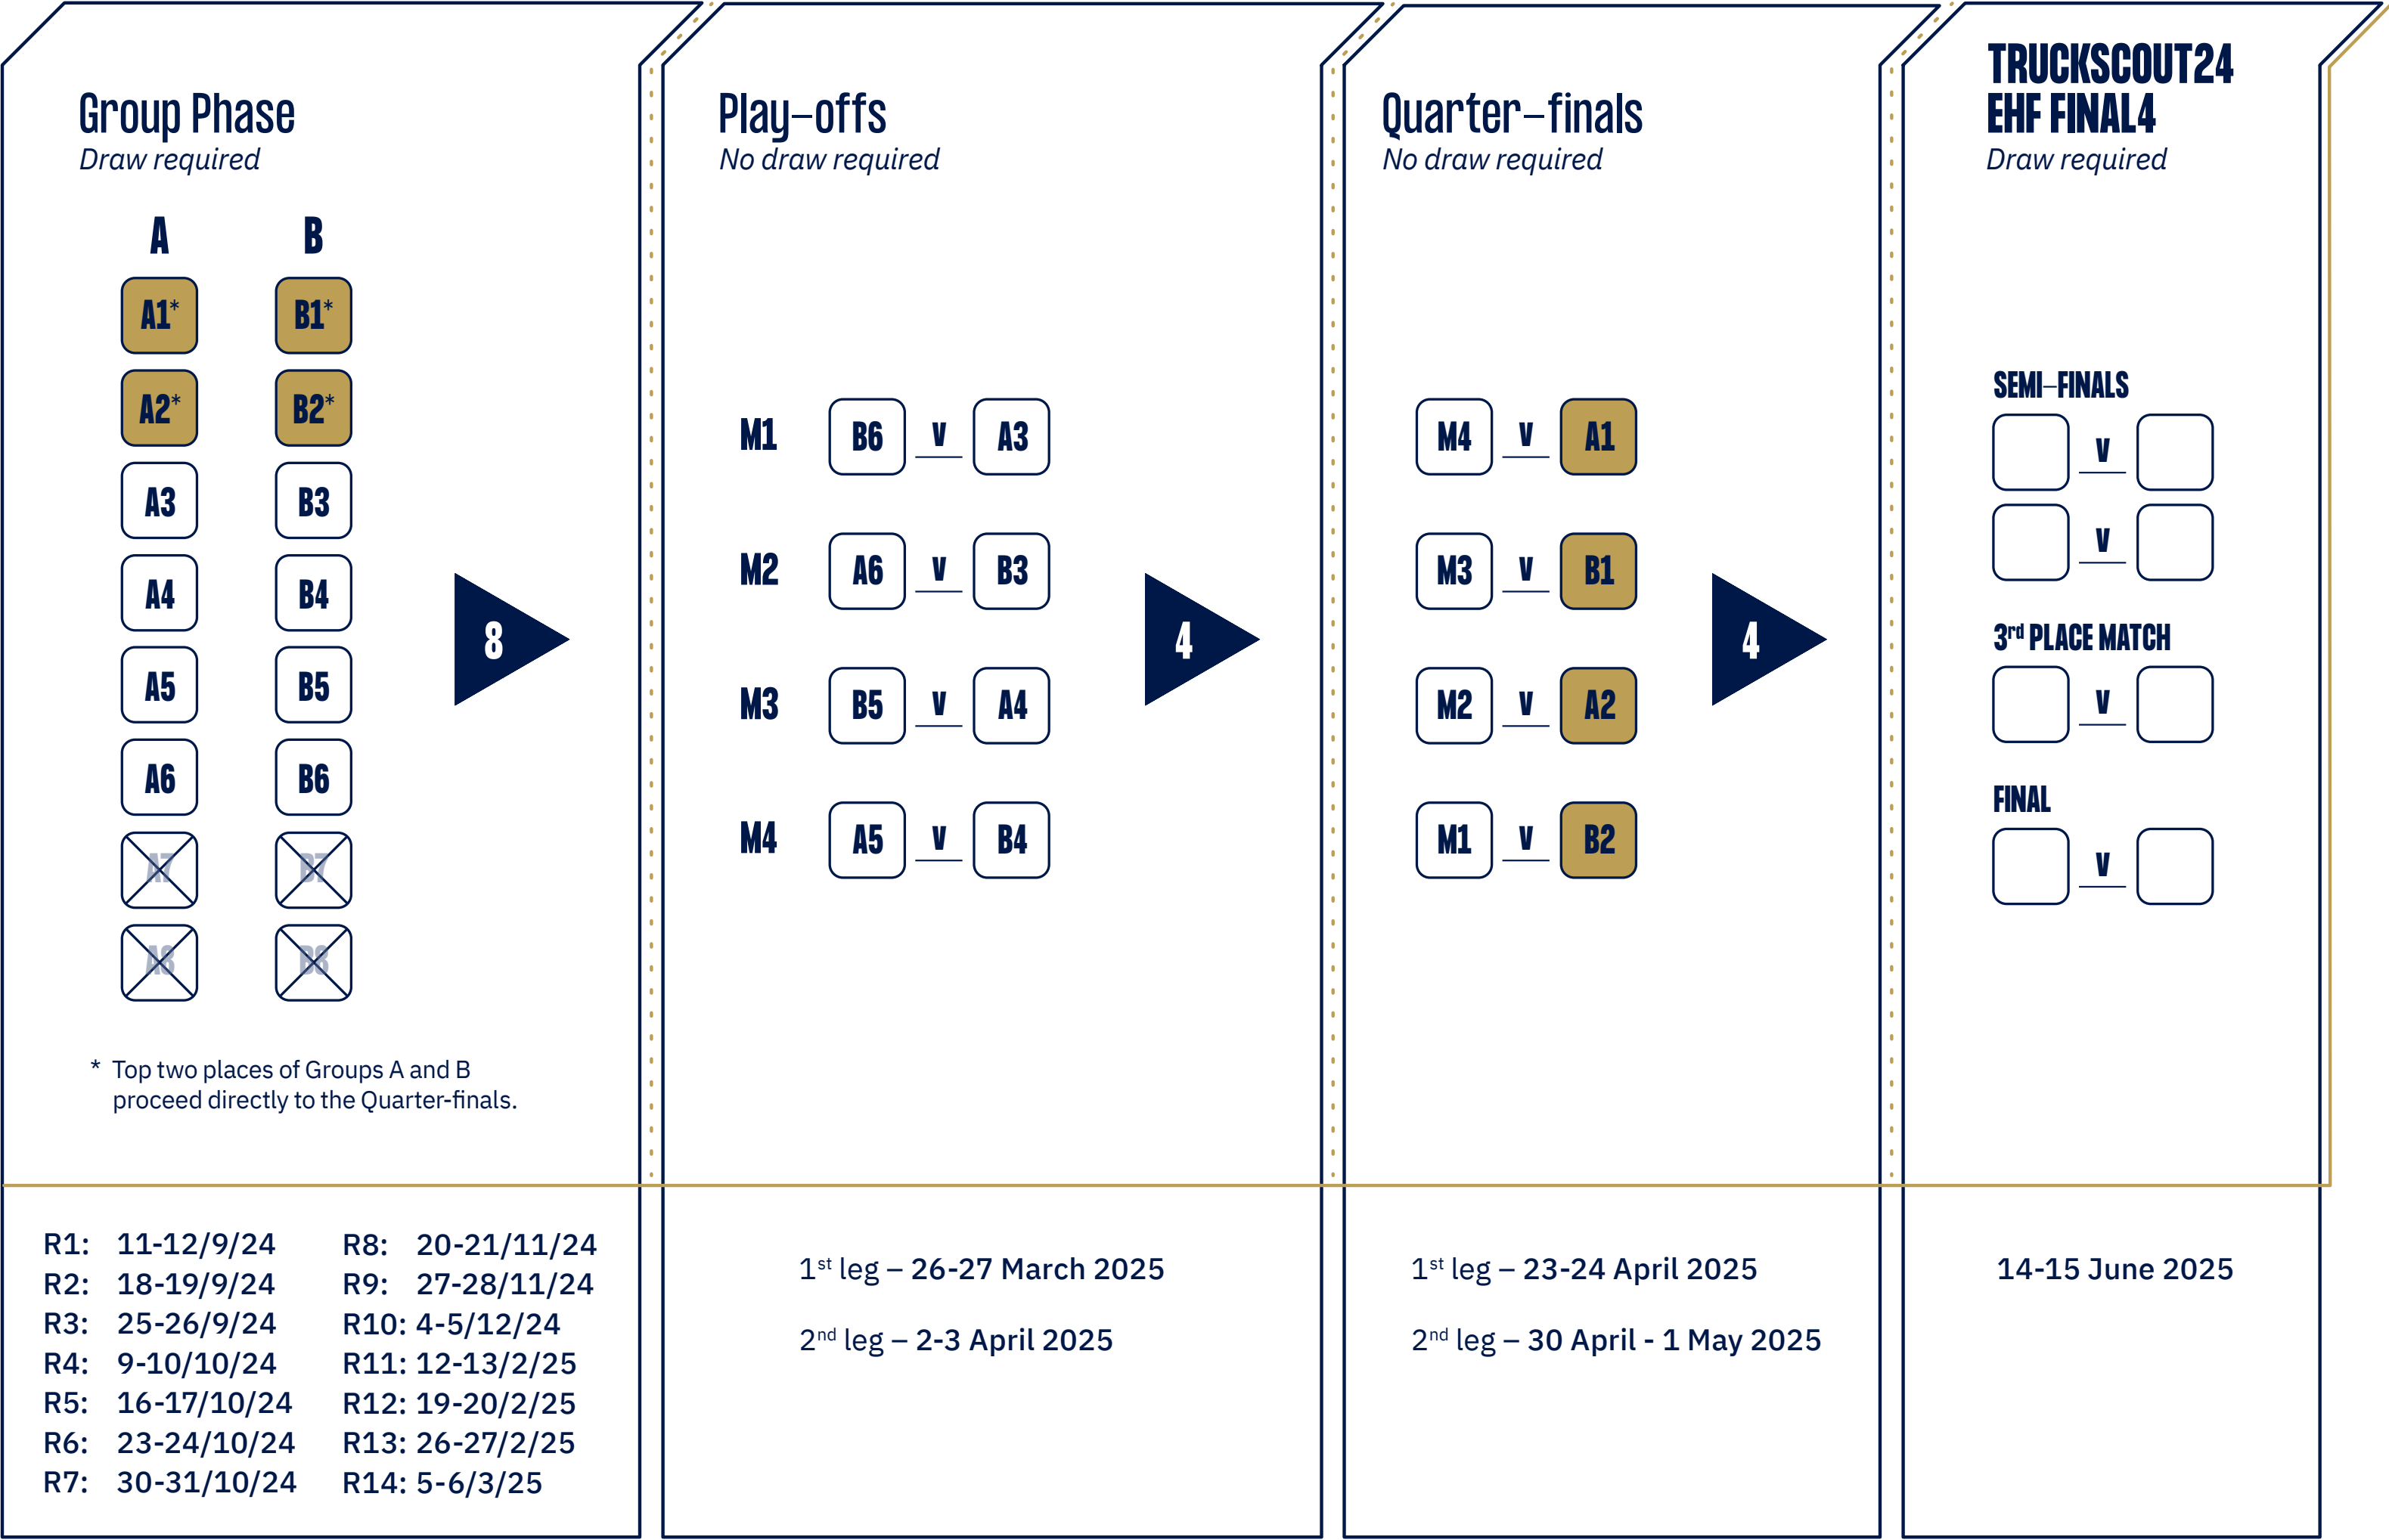

SEASON 2024/25

MACHINESEEKER EHF CHAMPIONS LEAGUE

2024/25 SEASON

Playing system and dates

The most important numbers ahead of the TruckScout 24 EHF FINAL4 2025 in Cologne

The last two winners of the TruckScout 24 EHF FINAL4 are back in Cologne — and either SC Magdeburg (winners in 2023) or Barça (2021, 2022 and 2024 champions) will make it to this year's final, after both proceeded from the quarter-finals. They will now duel on Saturday 14 June in a repeat of the 2023 semi-final.

The line-up for the 16th edition of the pinnacle event of European club handball, which will be staged on 14/15 June, is completed by HBC Nantes and Füchse Berlin, who will play in the second semi-final. Neither have ever won the trophy, but one of them will have the chance to play in this year's final. Füchse Berlin's superstar Mathias Gidsel is also close to becoming the top scorer of this competition for the first time.

Here is all you need to know before the TruckScout 24 EHF FINAL4 2025.

4 TEAMS, 3 COUNTRIES, 2 FORMER CHAMPIONS, 1 COVETED TROPHY

0 semi-finals will be played between teams from the same country, but a third all-German final, after 2007 and 2014's meetings between THW Kiel and SG Flensburg-Handewitt, is still possible quarter-final, between Magdeburg and Veszprém, ended in a draw (26:26)

1 team only that secured a direct ticket to the quarter-finals also qualified for the TruckScout4 EHF FINAL4: Barça. Group winners One Veszprém and runners-up Aalborg Håndbold and Sporting CP failed to reach the final weekend

1 team only has managed to defend the trophy since the implementation of the EHF FINAL4 in Cologne in 2010: Barça, winners of the 2021 final against Aalborg and the 2022 final against Kielce. Now the record winners could do it again, after winning the 2024 final against Aalborg

1 pairing of the semi-finals made up a previous Machineseker EHF Champions League semi-final: Barça versus Magdeburg. SCM made it to the final on their debut in Cologne, after winning the semi-final clash following overtime and a penalty shootout

1 goal was the smallest overall margin of victory in the quarter-finals, in Magdeburg's 54:53 aggregate victory against Veszprém, decided by Gisli Kristjansson's buzzer-beater; ahead of a two-goal difference in the duel between Barça and OTP Bank - PICK Szeged (56:54)

1 former and current IHF World Handball Player of the Year is still in the competition, making it to Cologne for the first time: Füchse Berlin right back Mathias Gidsel, who won the award in 2023 and 2024

1 former EHF Champions League top scorer is still part of the competition: Aleix Gómez (Barça, top scorer in the 2021/22 season)

- 2 former EHF Champions League finalists were knocked out in the semi-finals: Aalborg and Veszprém
- 2 teams won both legs of the quarter-finals: Berlin (against Aalborg) and Nantes (against Sporting CP)
- 2 German teams made it to Cologne for the sixth time since 2010: Rhein-Neckar Löwen and Hamburg participated in 2011; Kiel and Berlin in 2012; Kiel and Hamburg in 2013; Flensburg and Kiel qualified for the final weekend in 2014; and Kiel and Magdeburg were the two German clubs present in 2024

of the eight quarter-final matches were won by the home teams, while five clashes were won by the away teams and one was a draw

- 2 former or current EHF Champions League winners, representing 13 trophies, are back in Cologne: Barça (11) and Magdeburg (2)
- 2 players are in the race for their sixth individual EHF Champions League title: Aitor Ariño and Gonzalo Perez de Vargas (both Barça), but Perez de Vargas will miss the rest of the season due to a knee injury. Both will transfer to Germany next season: Ariño to Berlin and Perez de Vargas to Kiel

- 2 coaches of the semi-finalists have previously won the EHF Champions League while at the helm of their current clubs: Carlos Ortega (Barça, with Barça) and Bennet Wiegert (Magdeburg, with Magdeburg); both have also won the competition as players of their current clubs

- 2 participants from the TruckScout24 EHF FINAL4 2024 are also part of the competition this year: Barça and Magdeburg. Kiel did not qualify for the EHF Champions League, while Aalborg fell in the quarter-finals against Berlin

MVPs of the previous EHF FINAL4 tournaments are still part of the competition: Melvyn Richardson (Barça/2024), Gisli Kristjansson (Magdeburg/2023) and Gonzalo Perez de Vargas (Barça/2021)

- 3 matches so far have been attended by more than 10,000 fans, all in the group phase: two of them in Zagreb (13,524 fans against Kolstad Håndbold and 11,732 fans against Barça) and one in Nantes (10,356 fans against Magdeburg)

- 3 different countries (the same number as in the previous season) are represented by the four semi-finalists: Germany (two teams), France and Spain (one team each). The only change compared to the previous season is that no Danish team qualified for the final weekend, while one French team is still in the competition

- 4 — which means all — participants of the TruckScout24 EHF FINAL4 2025 have previously reached Cologne; three (all except Berlin) have previously reached the final

- 4 players have scored more than 1,000 goals in EHF Champions League history. The list is topped by Kiril Lazarov (1,482), while Timur Dibirov has just finished his international career ranked second with 1,214 goals, as his club HC Zagreb failed to qualify for the knockout stage

- 5 people have won the EHF Champions League as a player and a coach: Carlos Ortega, Bennet Wiegert, Talant Dujshebaev, Roberto Parrondo and Filip Jicha

- 6 matches since the start of the group phase ended in a margin of victory of 10 or more goals, including one in the play-offs, but none in the quarter-finals

- 6 of the 15 total titles of the previous EHF FINAL4 events were won by teams still in the race for the trophy: Barça (five) and Magdeburg (one) quarter-final matches — in Berlin, Nantes, Szeged, Veszprém, Magdeburg and Aalborg — were attended by more than 5,000 fans

6 countries are represented by the previous 31 EHF Champions League champions: Spain (17 titles), Germany (eight), France (two), North Macedonia (two), Poland and Slovenia (one each).

times since 2010 and including the current season, the defending champions have made it to Cologne: Barça in 2012, 2022, 2023 and 2025, Kiel in 2013, Vardar in 2018 and Magdeburg in 2024

7 — for the seventh consecutive time, Barça have qualified for the EHF FINAL4, for Magdeburg this is the third participation in a row

8 goals was the biggest winning margin in a single quarter-final: Berlin's 37:29 win against Aalborg

8 times — Carlos Ortega has won the EHF Champions League six times as a player and twice as Barça's coach. After winning the trophy in 2024, the Spaniard passed the previous record holder Andrej Xepkin, who won the trophy seven times as a player for Barça (six times) and Kiel.

10 times in the 128 matches since the start of the group phase, 70 or more goals were scored, including Berlin's 40:36 win at Aalborg in the quarter-finals

10 different Spanish coaches have steered their teams to an overall of 20 EHF Champions League trophies so far: Valero Rivera (five), Talant Dujshebaev (four), Xavi Pascual (three), Carlos Ortega (two), Javier Cuesta, Julian Ruiz, Francisco Equisoain, Francesc Espar, Raul Gonzalez and Roberto Parrondo (one each). Dujshebaev (Kielce in 2016), Parrondo (Vardar in 2019) and Gonzalez (Vardar 2017) were the only ones to win the trophy with non-Spanish teams

11 matches since the start of the group phase ended in draws, the 26:26 tie between Magdeburg and Veszprém was the only one in the quarter-finals

11 times (1995-2000, 2011, 2015, 2021, 2022, 2024) FC Barcelona have won the EHF Champions League, making them the record winner. In addition, they won the forerunner competition, the Champions Cup, once goals was the biggest overall margin of victory in the quarter-finals: Berlin's 77:65 aggregate win against Aalborg

13 — Barça have reached the EHF FINAL4 13 times in 16 editions, ahead of Kiel (nine), Veszprém (seven) and Paris Saint-Germain (six). Magdeburg and Nantes are on their third participations, Berlin their second

13 years after their debut in Cologne, Füchse Berlin are back in the LANXESS arena, in only their third EHF Champions League season

17 times have Spanish teams won the EHF Champions League — Barça (11), Ciudad Real (three), TEKA Santander, Bidasoa Irun and Portland San Antonio (one each)

18 goals is the biggest winning margin since the start of the group matches, when Sporting won 37:18 at Fredericia Håndbold Klub, ahead of 17 goals in Nantes' 44:27 win against Kolstad (both in the group phase)

matches played by Veszprém's Aron Palmarsson at EHF FINAL4 events, a record

20 goals were scored by Berlin's Mathias Gidsel in the quarter-finals: 11 in the first leg, nine in the second. The Dane was ahead of Dika Mem (17 for Barça) and the Szeged players Marko Sostaric (16) and Sebastian Frimmel (15)

28 years — the length of time, since 1997, that Barça did not lose a knockout match at home in the EHF Champions League, before they were defeated by Szeged 30:29 in the second quarter-final leg this year

30 times (including the current season) Veszprém have been part of the EHF Champions League; Barça are on their 28th season and the record holders are Zagreb with 31 participations

39 goals is the lowest score since the start of the group matches, when HC Eurofarm Pelister beat Orlen Wisla Plock 21:18, ahead of 40 goals in HC Zagreb’s 22:18 victory against Magdeburg.

66 times since the start of the group phase, including three in the quarter-finals, 60 or more goals were scored in a single match of the 128 matches since the start of the group matches were attended by 5,000 or more fans

70 matches since the start of the group phase (including two quarter-final games) were won by the home teams, 47 (including five in the quarter-finals) by the visitors, and there have been 11 draws

78 goals is the highest combined score since the start of the group phase, when Paris won 40:38 at Berlin, ahead of 76 goals in Berlin’s 40:36 victory in Aalborg in the quarter-finals and 74 goals in the Berlin vs Kielce play-off (37:37)

of the 128 matches so far were attended by 3,000 or more fans, including seven in the quarter-finals

130 goals were scored by Mario Sostaric (Szeged) to be the top scorer after the quarter-finals ahead of Gidsel (126) and his Berlin teammate Lasse Andersson (107)

309 victories in 402 EHF Champions League matches (plus 25 draws and 68 defeats) were taken by Barça so far to top the all-time EHF Champions League table

476 goals were scored in the quarter-finals (topped by 142 in the Berlin against Aalborg duels), for an average of 59.5 goals per match

goals have been scored by Füchse Berlin so far in 18 matches (an average of 34.22 per match), giving them the top attack

7,648 goals have been scored since the start of the season, including 6,691 goals in the 112 group matches, 481 in the play-offs and 476 in the quarter-finals: an overall average of 59.75 goals per match

13,524 fans at the group match between Zagreb and Kolstad is the highest attendance so far; the biggest number of fans in the quarter-finals watched Berlin play Aalborg (8,520)

WHAT HAPPENS IN CASE OF A DRAW AFTER 60 MINUTES

All matches of the TruckScout24 EHF FINAL4 2025 shall be played in 2 x 30 minutes with a half-time break of 15 minutes.

If a semi-final match or the final (place 1/2) ends in a draw, there will be a five-minute break followed by one overtime of 2 x 5 minutes and a one-minute half-time break for the changeover of teams.

If the 3/4 placement match ends in a draw, there shall be no overtime and the match will be decided directly by penalty shots.

RULES FOR EXECUTION OF PENALTY SHOTS

If penalty shots are needed to decide the match, the procedure is as follows:

- > Prior to the penalty throws, each team shall name five players eligible to play at the end of the match by handing the referees a list of numbers. These players shall then take one shot each, alternating with their opponents. Each team is free to determine the sequence in which players will take their shots.

- > The goalkeepers may be freely selected from the match report and exchanged in accordance with the Rules of the Game. Goalkeepers may take shots and players may perform as goalkeepers.

- > At the Technical Meeting the teams will be informed at which goal the penalty shots will be taken. The team taking the first penalty shot shall be determined by the referees by drawing lots. The team winning the draw may choose whether it wishes to shoot first or last.

- > If the scores are equal after the first round of penalty shots, it shall be continued until a decision is reached. In the second round, the other team shall start. Again five players shall be named who are eligible to play (the players named before may be named again).

- > In the second round, a decision is reached when a goal difference arises after both teams have taken one shot each.

- > Eligible players are players entered in the match report that have not been disqualified or suspended at the time of the final whistle.

- > Serious infractions committed during penalty shots shall be sanctioned by disqualification. If a shooter is disqualified or suffers an injury, an eligible substitute player shall be supplementary named.

- > While the shots are taken, only the player taking the shot, the current goalkeeper and the referees may enter the respective half of the playing court.

- > If the number of eligible players falls below five, players may be named to take a second shot in the same round.

PAIRINGS

I FÜCHSE BERLIN vs HBC NANTES

THROW-OFF: SATURDAY 14 JUNE 2025, 15:00 CEST / COLOGNE (GER)

REFEREES: JONAS ELIASSON / ANTON PALSSON (ISL)

DELEGATES: MARCO TRESPIDI (ITA) AND SHLOMO COHEN (ISR)

- finished third in group A in the group phase, before eliminating Industria Kielce in the play-offs (70:64 on aggregate) and Aalborg Håndbold in the quarter-finals (77:65 on aggregate)
- two Berlin players are among the top scorers in the EHF Champions League this season; Mathias Gidsel is ranked second (126 goals) and Lasse Andersson is third (107)
- with 469 goals across 14 games, Berlin had the most prolific attack in the group phase
- Valter Chrintz and Jerry Tollbring both suffered major injuries over the last year, forcing the club to sign Tobias Reichmann and Manuel Strlek to replace them
- three Füchse players have won the EHF FINAL4 before; Tobias Reichmann and Manuel Strlek in 2016 with Kielce and Dejan Milosavljev in 2019 with Vardar
- at 31, coach Jaron Siewert is the youngest coach to ever lead a team to the EHF FINAL4

- this season, they finished third in group B, before beating Wisla Plock in the play-offs (54:52 on aggregate) and Sporting CP in the quarter-finals (60:57 on aggregate)
- goalkeeper Ivan Pesic was key for the team this season, making 16 saves in the return leg against Sporting to help his team qualify
- Aymeric Minne is their current top scorer in the EHF Champions League this season with 84 goals, four more than Valero Rivera
- Rivera has finished as the competition's top scorer once before, in 2021, with 95 goals
- three Nantes players have already won the EHF Champions League in their careers; Baptiste Bonnefond and Julien Bos in 2018 with Montpellier, Valero Rivera in 2005 with Barça
- coach Gregory Cojean was an assistant to Alberto Entrerrios in 2021 when Nantes qualified for the EHF FINAL4, but this will be his first event as head coach

It is the third EHF Champions League participation for Füchse Berlin and the first since 2013. In the meantime, the team from the German capital won the EHF Cup and the IHF Super Globe twice and the EHF European League once. Berlin were part of an overall of eight final tournaments since 2012 (EHF Champions League, EHF European League, EHF Cup). The team of the young head coach Jaron Siewert finished second in the German Bundesliga and includes the current IHF World Player of the Year Mathias Gidsel and many more top class players. In 2024, they lost the EHF European League final against their country-fellows from Flensburg – and now Berlin aim to go all the way to the TruckScout24 EHF FINAL4 in Cologne.

MAIN FACTS

- › 2025 is their second participation at the EHF FINAL4 having finished fourth in 2012, which included a loss in the semi-final against THW Kiel (24:25)
- › have won the EHF European League and its predecessor, the EHF Cup three times – in 2015, 2018 and 2023 – and have reached the EHF Finals or the previous final four tournaments on four further occasions; 2017, 2019, 2021 and 2024
- › also won the IHF Super Globe in 2015 and 2016 and finished as runners-up in 2017, 2018 and 2023
- › this season is the first in the Machineseecker EHF Champions League for Füchse Berlin since 2013/14, as they have only played in the EHF Cup and EHF European League since then
- › their only ever domestic trophy before 2024/25 was the DHB Supercup last season
- › superstar right back Mathias Gidsel joined the club in 2022, kicking off a great era for Füchse Berlin who narrowly missed out on the Bundesliga title last season

GOALKEEPER

Dejan Milosavljev

@dejanmilosavljev

- Serbian international who arrived at Füchse in 2019 from Vardar, right after winning the CL
 - second highest number of saves in the CL 2024/25, behind Barça's Emil Nielsen, with 151 ahead of the EHF FINAL4
 - CL All-star goalkeeper in 2018/19; also crucial for Füchse in their run to the EL title in 2022/23
 - made his senior club debut at age 16 and national team debut aged 18; played for Jugovic Kac, Red Star and Partizan before joining Vardar in 2018
 - forms Füchse's goalkeeper duo with 2023 U21 world champion Lasse Ludwig
- CL: 2019; EL 2023

GOALKEEPER

Lasse Ludwig

@lasse.ludwig

- a product of the Füchse youth ranks, who arrived at the club in 2019, aged 16
 - became second goalkeeper at Berlin ahead of the 2024/25 season, after the departure of Viktor Kireev
 - made his first appearance for the A team in the Bundesliga in December 2019, when he was 17; spent 2022–2024 mostly with Potsdam, playing the lower divisions
 - made it on court at the EHF Finals Men 2024, facing 14 shots across the two matches and making three saves
 - of the same generation as Freihöfer and Nils Lichtlein; won the M19 EHF EURO 2021 and 2023 Junior WCh
- EL: 2023

Manuel Strlek

- arrived at Berlin from RK Nexe in November 2024 as a replacement for Jerry Tollbring; had been playing the EL with Nexe
 - a highly experienced player at the top level, with 16 CL seasons behind him; his personal scoring record in the CL was 75 goals in 2021/22
 - started his professional career at Zagreb; his subsequent clubs, before arriving at Next, were Kielce (2012–2018) and Veszprém (2018–2023)
 - named All-star Team left wing of the EHF EURO 2010 and 2016, and for the CL 2015/16, when he won the trophy with Kielce

Returning to the top flight after one season in the EHF European League, where they reached the quarter-finals, HBC Nantes are proud to be back in the Machineseecker EHF Champions League. They finished last season's French league just one point behind champions PSG and are now eager to show their strength in Europe again.

The 2018 runners-up have been strengthened by the arrival of the experienced Matej Gaber and Nicolas Tournat, who should make up for the off-season departure of several players. Nantes are in a tough group but have proven in the past they are up for the challenge.

HBC NANTES

MAIN FACTS

- › HBC Nantes have played at the EHF FINAL4 twice before; in 2018, where they reached the final but were beaten by Montpellier (27:32), and in 2021, where they lost in the semi-final against Barça (26:31)
- › they also reached the final of the EHF Cup in 2013 and 2016, but lost to Rhein-Neckar Löwen and Göppingen, respectively
- › on the domestic front, Nantes have won the French cup three times; in 2017, 2023 and 2024, and won the French Supercup this season
- › in the last six seasons, Nantes never managed to qualify twice in a row for the Machineseker EHF Champions League, alternating between it and the EHF European League
- › Nantes have played against Füchse Berlin before, but only in the EHF European League; the French side have won three games, Berlin two and one ended in a draw
- › each of the three times Nantes have reached the EHF FINAL4, they have done so with a different coach; Thierry Anti in 2018, Alberto Entrerrios in 2021 and Gregory Cojean in 2025

REFEREES: SLAVE NIKOLOV / GJORGJI NACHEVSKI (MKD)

DELEGATES: LIDIJA BOJIC-CACIC (CRO) AND OYVIND TOGSTAD (NOR)

- they finished first in group B with 22 points, before beating OTP Bank - PICK Szeged in the quarter-finals (56:54 on aggregate) on their way to Cologne
- signed retired goalkeeper Vincent Gérard as a replacement for Gonzalo Perez de Vargas, who suffered a knee injury in the winter
- the Frenchman was key for his new team in the quarter-finals, with four important saves in the return leg against Szeged
- 17 players in this season's Barça squad have already won the EHF Champions League, including 16 with Barça
- Luis Frade and Melvyn Richardson are Barça's current top scorers in the competition, having scored 64 goals each

- they finished fourth in group B this season with 13 points, before eliminating Dinamo Bucuresti in the play-offs (65:55 on aggregate) and One Veszprém HC in the quarter-finals (54:53 on aggregate)
- Gisli Kristjansson was instrumental in the quarter-final, scoring the buzzer-beater to help Magdeburg win the second leg by one goal
- Omar Ingi Magnusson is their top scorer in the competition this season, with 64 goals, which places him 27th overall
- important players all suffered major injuries at some point of the season, with Felix Claar, Omar Ingi Magnusson, Gisli Kristjansson, Oscar Bergendahl and Matthias Musche all being out at some point

Barça returned to the throne of European men's club handball in 2024, winning the TruckScout24 EHF FINAL4 in Cologne in convincing manner for their record-extending 11th top-flight trophy. It was their third title in the last four seasons – a series only interrupted by Magdeburg in 2023.

And with their vastly unchanged quad, Barça will top many lists of pre-season favourites again when the group phase of the Machineseecker EHF Champions League 2024/25 gets underway, despite the strong opposition from the likes of Magdeburg, Kielce, and last season's runners-up Aalborg, who all share the same group.

BARÇA

MAIN FACTS

- › Barça are the record holders for most EHF Champions League wins, with 11 trophies; they have lost the final four times
- › this season will be their 11th participation in the EHF FINAL4, which they have already won five times, including in 2024
- › Barça hold many other records, including being the only team to have won all their matches en route to winning the trophy, back in 2021
- › they are also the only club to have won the EHF FINAL4 back-to-back; in 2021 and 2022
- › Barça have already won the Spanish league this season as well as the Copa ASOBAL
- › coach Carlos Ortega won the EHF Champions League both as a player (six times between 1996 and 2005) and as a coach (2022 and 2024)
- › the victory in 2022 was during Ortega's first season on the Barça bench

COACH

Carlos Ortega

- took the helm at Barça in 2021, succeeding Xavi Pascual; played 11 years for the club before returning as coach
- has won two CL trophies with Barça, plus six as a player, making him the only person ever to win eight titles in the top flight
- playing as a right back and wing, Ortega was part of Barça’s five back-to-back CL trophy wins from 1996 to 2000
- scored more than 500 goals for the Spain national team; took two EHF EURO medals and Olympic bronze with the side
- started coaching in 2005; worked at Veszprém, Kolding, and Hannover, and had two stints coaching the Japan men, including at Paris 2024

CL: 1996–2000, 2005 (as player), 2022, 2024 (as coach); CWC: 1995; EC: 2003

SC Magdeburg won everything they could win last season – the domestic league and cup, and the IHF Super Globe – except for the Machineseecker EHF Champions League. Magdeburg made it to the TruckScout24 EHF FINAL4 again but could not repeat their title triumph from the 2022/23 season.

Avoiding major changes to their squad in the off-season, Magdeburg are part of the inner circle of main title contenders for the 2024/25 season again. Competition will be stiff in this tough group, but the German side aim for nothing less than direct entry into the quarter-finals.

SC MAGDEBURG

MAIN FACTS

- › SC Magdeburg have won the EHF Champions League twice in their history; in 2002 and more recently in 2023, when they beat Industria Kielce in the final (30:29 after overtime)
- › this season is Magdeburg's seventh in the top-tier European competition, yet they have two final victories and have reached another semi-final
- › in recent years, Magdeburg have also won the German Bundesliga twice (2022 and 2024), the German Cup (2024), the EHF European League (2021) and the IHF Super Globe (2021, 2022 and 2023)
- › 12 players who won the EHF FINAL4 in 2023 are still present in Magdeburg's squad this season. Nikola Portner also won the competition in 2018 with Montpellier
- › Bennet Wiegert has been the team's coach since 2015, after playing for the club from 1998 to 2004 and from 2007 to 2013
- › Wiegert is one of five coaches to have also won the EHF Champions League as a player, alongside Filip Jicha, Talant Dujshebaev, Antonio Carlos Ortega and Roberto Garcia Parrondo

COACH

Bennet
Wiegert

- former Germany left wing, who played for Magdeburg from 1998 to 2013, interrupted by brief stints at Wilhelmshaven and Gummersbach between 2004 and 2007
- won the CL with Magdeburg as a player in 2002 and as a coach in 2023
- led Magdeburg to the EL title in 2021, three straight IHF Super Globe trophies from 2021 to 2023, the German Cup in 2016 and 2024, and the Bundesliga trophy in 2022 and 2024
- replaced Ger Sveinsson as head coach of Magdeburg in December 2015; previously worked as director of the club's youth academy
- his father, Ingolf, won Olympic gold as a player in 1980 and was later Magdeburg coach

CL: 2002 (as player), 2023 (as coach); EL: 2021 (as coach)

GOALKEEPER

Nikola Portner

@nikola_portner

- Swiss international who played six seasons of the CL before joining Magdeburg in 2022; arrived after two seasons with Chambéry
 - spent four seasons with Montpellier, from 2016 to 2020, winning the CL title with the side
 - awarded best goalkeeper of the French league for 2021/22 while playing for Chambéry
 - Magdeburg is the first German club in his career and sixth overall; before moving to France, he played for Grauholz, Bern Muri, Kadetten Schaffhausen, all in Switzerland
 - his father, Zlatko Portner, was world champion in 1986 and Olympic bronze medallist in 1988, playing for Yugoslavia
- CL: 2018, 2023

GOALKEEPER

Sergey Hernandez

@sergeyhf25

- Spanish international who arrived at Magdeburg in 2023 after three seasons at SL Benfica
 - MVP of the EHF Finals Men in 2022, when Benfica beat Magdeburg in the final; also MVP of the German Cup Final4 in 2024, leading Magdeburg to their third title in the competition
 - started his professional career with five seasons at Helvetia Anaitasuna then two at Logroño, before moving to Benfica in 2020
 - has a unique personal story: born in Russia, then adopted by Spanish parents who were both athletes; his father worked for Kolding in Denmark and that is where Hernandez discovered handball
 - made his debut for the Spain national team in 2017; has won two medals with the side but played a small number of matches at those tournaments
- EL: 2022
EURO: S 2022; WCh: B 2021

Lukas Mertens

@lukasmertens22

- started his career at his home club Wilhelmshaven; joined SCM in 2017
 - scored a personal best 58 goals in European cup competitions in the EL 2020/21; netted 45 on the path to Magdeburg's CL title win in 2022/23
 - regular in the Germany national team since 2021; the EHF EURO 2022 was his first major tournament
 - reached the semi-finals at both major championships in 2024, placing fourth at the EHF EURO and taking the silver medal at the OG
 - silver medallist and All-star Team left wing at the M20 EHF EURO in 2016; also All-star Team left wing at the 2017 Junior WCh
- CL: 2023; EL: 2021

Pablo Lange

@pablo_lange31

- brought from the YAC side into the A team following Matthias Musche's season-ending injury in the CL quarter-finals
- has played three games in the CL 2024/25 ahead of the EHF FINAL4, scoring one goal
- his goal was a penalty taken at the end of SCM's victory over Zagreb, in Zagreb, in the group phase in October 2024

Felix Claar

@felixclaar

- joined Magdeburg in 2023 after three years at Aalborg, scoring 85 goals in his first CL season with the German club; has netted 46 this year
 - named centre back of the 2023/24 season at the EHF Excellence Awards, 2024 Swedish Handballer of the Year and MVP of the Swedish league in 2018/19 and 2019/20
 - started his professional career at Alingsås (2013–2020) before moving to Aalborg
 - a key part of the new golden Sweden generation that collected three medals in the four major international championships spanning from 2021 to 2024
 - has played six championships with Sweden after making his national team debut in 2017; led the side with 38 goals and ranked 10th overall in that statistic at the EHF EURO 2024
- EURO: G 2022, B 2024; WCh: S 2021

Michael Damgaard
