

JOB OPENING: BROADCAST OPERATIONS MANAGER M/W/X

European club handball continues to grow – in reach, relevance, and international visibility. In parallel with this development on the playing field, EHF Marketing GmbH is taking a key step by bringing the sales and management of media rights and media operations for the EHF Club Competitions in-house.

As part of this development, new professional opportunities are being created within the organisation. These roles focus on media rights distribution, partner and broadcaster management, media operations, and the continuous optimisation of production standards, while maximising broadcast and digital exposure.

EHF Marketing GmbH is looking for an experienced Broadcast Operations Manager to join its team based in Vienna, Austria. This role reports directly to the Head of Media Operations and offers the opportunity to work at the heart of European handball, contributing directly to the development and growth of the sport's leading club competitions – the EHF Champions League, the EHF European League and the EHF European Cup.

What we offer you:

- Lead broadcast operations for Europe's top-tier handball club competitions.
- Act as the main point of contact for international rights-holding broadcasters.
- Play a high-impact role in the broadcast performance of flagship Final Events.
- Work in a dynamic, passionate, and international environment at the intersection of live sport, media rights, and distribution.

At EHF Marketing, sport, entrepreneurial thinking, teamwork and passion for sport drive everything we do. As part of a dynamic and international environment, you will contribute to shaping the future of European club handball at the intersection of sport, media and business.

Key responsibilities

- Lead broadcast operations across EHF Club Competitions: Booking, Satellite/IP distribution, onsite activities.
- Oversee the accreditation management for EHF Club Competitions
- Collaborate on the development of broadcast rundowns to continuously adapt the product to the evolving media landscape.
- Own the coordination and compliance with Audio-visual contracts around broadcasting.
- Own the permanent communication with official broadcasters, including the implementation of regular workshops.
- Work closely with other EHF departments and projects regarding broadcasting topics.
- Act as the main liaison with clubs on broadcasting matters.
- Oversee broadcasting performance analysis and media monitoring, driving continuous improvements in broadcast quality and exposure.

Profile

- High interest in the production and broadcast of premium sports events, innovative developments, and potentials in this field.
- 3 years' experience working directly with broadcast right holders in international competitions.
- Strong understanding of sport broadcast standards and workflows (satellite/IP).
- Structured and highly organized, with the ability to manage multiple tasks and projects simultaneously in fast-paced, live-events environments.
- Ability to work as part of a team and independently. Detail- and solution-oriented way of working; hands-on mentality.
- Good working knowledge of MS office programs and digital workflows.
- Fluency in written and spoken English; other European languages (especially German) useful.
- Interest in and understanding of the sport of handball.

Further information

- Preferred starting date: asap
- Permanent full-time position
- Workplace: Vienna, Austria
- Salary: €43.000 - €51.000 gross per year; overpayment possible depending on qualifications
